

Trainer Marcus Tregoning suffered the disappointment of seeing his Sussex Stakes star Mohaather retired with injury before being able to add to his Group One tally, but at Newbury on Saturday his two year old Showcasing colt Alkumait showed he has a very bright future when he put in the performance of the weekend to win the G2 Mill Reef Stakes. A Goodwood maiden winner in July, Alkumait quickened well a furlong from home in the six furlong contest, keeping on to beat Five-thousandtoone somewhat comfortably by three quarters of a length.

Like Mohaather, Alkumait is by Whitsbury Manor Stud resident Showcasing, and is owned by Sheikh Hamdan, having been purchased as a yearling.

Tregoning is keen to run Alkumait again this season, with connections considering supplementing him for the G1 Dewhurst Stakes. The seven furlongs at Newmarket would be informative as to stamina – Alkumait is by Showcasing out of a Dutch Art mare who won over 5f and 6f and has also produced winners over sprint trips – and the Commonwealth Cup could be a more realistic target than the 2000 Guineas next year.

Class-wise, Alkumait lacks little, with Timeform awarding him a rating of 118p, second only to Thunder Moon amongst juveniles this season. That rating is also equivalent to that achieved by Ribchester in winning the Mill Reef, ahead of his Group One winning exploits over a mile at three and four.

Sheikh Hamdan had another notable winner at Newbury, with Elarqam, winner of the G2 York Stakes in 2019, putting two disappointing efforts behind him to win the G3 Legacy Cup. The five-year-old made virtually all, and battled well when his rivals challenged to win going away by a length and a half. By Frankel out of the Classic winner Attraction, trainer Mark Johnston is sure that Elarqam has the ability to register a Group One win, and will be sifting the remaining opportunities this season.

Another juvenile performance of note came in the G3 Prix Eclipse at Chantilly, where the Maurizio Guarnieri-trained Plainchant (Gregorian) made all the running, having her rivals struggling from halfway and being eased down late on to win by five lengths. Plainchant beat subsequent G3 Prix d'Arenberg winner Kalahara in a La Teste de Buch maiden in June, won the Listed Criterium du Bequet in July and found only Fev Rover too good when attempting to make all over 7f in the G2 Prix du Calvados last time. Plainchant is a member of Gregorian's third crop, covered at £4,500, and becomes his second Group winner alongside York G3 winner Queen Jo Jo. Both Queen Jo Jo and Plainchant were purchased by agent Federico Barberini.

The G3 Firth of Clyde Fillies' Stakes at Ayr was won by the Richard Fahey-trained Umm Kukthum. Third behind Miss Amulet in the G2 Lowther Stakes last time, she took time to get going but was well in command at the line and will appreciate a step up in trip. She becomes the seventh stakes winner from Kodiak's 2018 crop (covered at €50,000).

The feature at Ayr was the Ayr Gold Cup, won by the very much in-form William Haggas with Sheikh Ahmed's Nahaarr (Dark Angel) justifying favouritism when showing an electrifying burst of speed from the rear of the field to surge past his rivals. A progressive four-year-old, he will be a warm order when he steps into Group company, with Timeform rating him 118.

Haggas also won the Listed Doonside Cup with six year old gelding Addeybb (Pivotal), who had a confidence-boosting win ahead of an autumn campaign after a three month layoff which came after an Australian campaign earlier in the year where he won the G1 Ranvet Stakes and the G1 Longines Queen Elizabeth Stakes. Giving weight to his rivals on ground faster than ideal, Addeybb is likely to head to the G1 Champion Stakes in search of more Group One honours.

Epona Plays won the Lavarack & Lanwades Stud Fillies Stakes at Gowran Park to give her sire Australia another Group winner, keeping on to lead inside the final furlong, beating Etneya by a neck, with the front pair five lengths clear of the field.

Dubawi had a Group double in the week, taking his total Group winners for the season to 14. Three-year-old Lazuli won the G3 World Trophy Stakes against older rivals at Newbury on Saturday, bouncing back from two below par runs following victory in the Listed Scurry Stakes in June to look a sprinter full of potential for next year. On Friday, Fonthill Abbey had won the G3 Prix Bertrand de Tarragon for Andre Fabre.

The Cambridgeshire meeting at Newmarket takes centre stage in the coming week, with some fascinating two-year-old action in the Middle Park and Cheveley Park Stakes.

See you next Tuesday.
