Mehmas cemented his position at the head of the first crop sires' table at the weekend, with no less than three of his sons, all of them previous stakes winners, lining up in the G1 Middle Park Stakes at Newmarket's Cambridgeshire meeting. It was the Clive Cox-trained Supremacy, an impressive winner of the G2 Richmond Stakes at Glorious Goodwood last time, that came out on top to give the Tally Ho Stud sire his first Group One winner. Lucky Vega was second for Lope De Vega – who had a very good weekend – and Gimcrack winner Minzaal took third.

Mehmas has 33 winners to his name so far at a 38% winning strike rate with 26% of his rated runners at 85 and above, from a crop that numbers 113 foals, by some way the largest of his generation (Twilight Son is next, with 102). His first crop realised an average of £33,400 as yearlings last year. This autumn he has already seen a yearling colt sell for £190,000 at Tattersalls Ireland, and has an abundance of yearlings catalogued at the Orby Sale and In October Book 2.

New Bay was another first season sire with a Group winner, as the Ralph Beckett-trained New Mandate, already a gelding and hence ineligible for the Classics, won the G2 Royal Lodge Stakes. This was the 10th winner from 25 runners for the Ballylinch resident.

Darley's freshman Belardo had a Group double, with Isabella Giles – also trained by Clive Cox – winning the G2 Rockfel Stakes, adding to her Prestige Stakes win to make it four wins from five starts on better ground than she experienced at Goodwood. She is the highest-rated runner so far for her sire, who has seven winners from 34 runners, a very respectable 46% of which are rated 85 and above. Cox reports that Isabella Giles is likely to head to the 1,000 Guineas, while Supremacy would be a more likely candidate for the Commonwealth Cup. The trainer has had an excellent year with his juveniles, and will also be represented in the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagadere next Sunday by Coventry Stakes winner Nando Perrado.

Belardo's other Group winner was Elysium, a bargain €15,000 Goffs yearling purchase, who won the G3 Weld Park Stakes over seven furlongs at the Curragh, quickening well on the outside to win by one-and-a-half lengths.

Belardo is by Lope De Vega, who also sired a Group double in the week. La Barrosa, the 750,000 gns yearling that earned a mention here three weeks ago after winning an Ascot maiden, won the G3 Tattersalls Stakes. He had to fight to get off the rail, but once he had a clear run he engaged top gear and stayed on to be well in command at the line. Connections are sufficiently encouraged to consider supplementing him for the G1 Dewhurst Stakes. Lope De Vega has a very good crop of two year olds, covered at €50,000, with G1 winner Lucky Vega and G2 winner Cadillac heading them.

Lope De Vega's second Group winner came when the Ralph Beckett-trained four-year-old Antonia De Vega got the better of Alpinista to win the G3 Princess Royal Stakes.

2000 Guineas winner Kameko put in the best performance of the week from a ratings perspective, clearly relishing the return to the scene of his Classic triumph to win the G2 Joel Stakes where he gave weight to five-year-old Regal Reality and six-year-old Benbatl, multiple Group winners both. Kameko will next run in either the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes, where he would meet Palace Pier, or at the Breeders' Cup, having broken a run of fourth place finishes in the Derby, Sussex and Juddmonte International.

Kameko is trained by Andrew Balding, who also won the G1 Cheveley Park Stakes with Jeff Smith's Alcohol Free, a €40,000 foal purchase from No Nay Never's third crop, covered at €17,500. A Newbury maiden winner, she was beaten in a Salisbury G3 last time but came on for that at Newmarket to beat Miss Amulet and Umm Kulthum. Her Camelot half-brother Alexander James won over 8f and 9f, so the Guineas looks possible on pedigree – but No Nay Never's other 6f juvenile G1 winner Ten Sovereigns was beaten in last year's 2000 Guineas, only bouncing back when dropped to 6f in the July Cup.

The most impressive performance of the week came in the G2 Beresford Stakes at the Curragh, where the Aidan O'Brien-trained High Definition (Galileo) finished like an express train, coming from the rear to scythe down his rivals, getting up to win by three quarters of a length. On the basis of that, he was installed as the new ante post favourite for the Derby. His full brother Innisfree won this race last year, but has not been seen since finishing second to Kameko in the Vertem Futurity Stakes last October.

The Cambridgeshire was won by Majestic Dawn, fifth in the race last year, who was prominent throughout under Paul Hanagan and pulled clear to win by four and a half lengths. He now rates as one of the best runners by Dawn Approach, whose leading runner thus far is G2 winning juvenile Madhmoon.

Warwick racecourse staged its card last Monday in sunshine with a crowd of almost 500 in attendance. That happy scene does not look like being repeated in the near future, with Covid restrictions being reimposed the following day. With the government announcing a policy of suppressing the virus until a vaccine is ready (and administered), it looks like being a long road until racing will take place before crowds again.

See you next week.
