British Champions Day at Ascot on Saturday was a day for lovers of deep going and a day for geldings, which won all four Group races open to males.

The G1 Champion Stakes saw a strong field assemble – augmented by the late withdrawals from the Arc a fortnight earlier – with the first two home from last year's race, the Derby winner, the Prix du Jockey-Club winner and the Prince of Wales's Stakes winner all lining up. It was the William Haggas-trained Addeybb (Pivotal), a proven performer in testing conditions, that came out on top, forging clear in the final two furlongs and staying on strongly to beat the useful French yardstick Skalleti (who beat Sottsass at Deauville in August), with last year's winner Magical taking third, lacking the sparkle she had shown at Leopardstown last month when beating Ghaiyyath (now retired to stud) in the Irish Champion Stakes.

This was the first Group One win on British soil for Addeybb, who was second in this race last year and won a pair of Group Ones at Rosehill and Randwick in Australia at the start of the year. He is a consistent performer and, being relatively lightly raced, looks likely to add further wins at the highest level as a seven year old next season.

Addeybb was saved for Champions Day, not running between Royal Ascot and a warm-up Listed win at Ayr last month. Another horse to be saved for an autumn campaign on his preferred soft ground was the Francis-Henri Graffard-trained The Revenant (Dubawi), who won the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Stakes, having finished second to King Of Change in last year's edition.

The five year old made his seasonal debut with victory in the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein on Arc weekend and improved from that at Ascot as he got the better of the front-running Roseman by a head. The unbeaten Palace Pier could finish only a disappointing third, although he was reported to have lost a shoe at the start. John Gosden had a number of well-fancied chances, but Palace Pier, Mishriff, Lord North and Stradivarius were all beaten, having dazzled in the summer.

Addeybb is by Pivotal, who had a Group One double on the card as Glen Shiel won the Champions Sprint, giving rider Hollie Doyle her first Group One win. An improving six year old trained by Archie Watson, Glen Shiel had progressed from handicap company to win the G3 Phoenix Sprint Stakes at the Curragh in August, before finishing second behind Dream Of Dreams in the G1 Sprint Cup last time. The veteran Brando ran a fine race in second, with One Master taking third, two weeks after her heroics at Longchamp. July Cup winner Oxted, having his first start since winning at Newmarket, was fifth in conditions that placed a premium on race-fitness and should remain a force in sprint races in 2021.

The G1 Champions Fillies and Mares saw trainer David Menuisier saddle his first British Group One winner as Wonderful Tonight (Le Havre), another Arc weekend winner, ran on strongly to beat Dame Malliot by two and a half lengths. This is the fourth European Group One winner for Le Havre, who has a 7% strike rate of stakes winners to runners.

Perhaps the biggest improver at Ascot was the Alan King-trained Trueshan (Planteur), who won the G2 Long Distance Cup on his first start over two miles, storming seven and a half lengths clear under Hollie Doyle. If he can run to a similar level on better ground, he will be of great interest in next season's Cup races.

The G3 Killavullan Stakes for two year olds at Leopardstown was won by Jim Bolger's homebred Poetic Flare (Dawn Approach), a half-sister to Listed winner Glamorous Approach whose granddam is a half-sister to Teofilo's dam Speirbhean. Poetic Flare had finished tenth in the Dewhurst Stakes a week ago, but put that behind him to run out the two and a half-length winner, the third career Group winner for his sire Dawn Approach. Jim Bolger's other juvenile Group winner, G2 Futurity Stakes winner Mac Swiney, could run in next weekend's G1 Vertem Futurity Stakes at Doncaster.

Leading first season sire Mehmas became the most successful European first-season sire in history on Monday when he registered his 38th individual two-year-old winner of the season. The previous record had been set by Iffraaj in 2010, when Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere winner Wootton Bassett had been one of two stakes winners for the Darley sire. In contrast, Mehmas has four stakes winners to his name, headed by Middle Park Stakes winner Supremacy, and has 13% of his runner rated 100+.

The Tattersalls October Yearling Sale concluded, with Book 2 posting remarkable trade in the current climate that saw the aggregate unchanged from last year. The average dipped by just 3% and 637 lots were sold, 85% of those offered, a figure identical to 2019. The quartile average chart on page 2 shows the top quartile performed best, with competition for the top lots driving a 14% increase in average, with the lower bands showing a modest decline.

See you next week.
