

30 March 2021, Issue 1. Park Express Stakes.

Welcome to the first issue of the Black Type Digest for 2021, covering all black type races on the all-weather in the first three months of the year, plus the early Group and Listed races on turf.

The G3 Winter Derby at Lingfield at the end of February was won by Forest Of Dean (Iffraaj), a 450,000 gns Tattersalls yearling purchase for Godolphin, who gave trainer John Gosden his third successive win in the race. The five year old is set to line up in the Easter Classic at the All Weather Championships on Good Friday.

Gosden now holds his licence jointly with his son Thady, and the pair had a fine start to the 2021 turf Flat season when Haqeeqy, a four-year-old son of Lope De Vega, ran out a highly impressive winner of the Lincoln Handicap at Doncaster, showing a smart turn of foot under a cool ride from apprentice rider Benoit de la Sayette, who was having his first ride on turf. Haqeeqy is owned by Ms Hissa Hamdan al Maktoum, the daughter of Sheikh Hamdan al Maktoum, who died at the age of 75 last week and will be much missed.

Haqeeqy is as yet untried in black type company, but looks likely to make his mark there, with Timeform rating him 120p, equal to the 2018 winner Addeybb, subsequently a multiple Group One winner, including in last season's G1 Champion Stakes. Lord Glitters, another subsequent G1 winner, had been second to Addeybb on Town Moor.

Another handicap winner, this time racing in the colours of the late Sheikh Hamdan himself, that could shine at a higher level with more experience is the William Haggas-trained Al Zaraqaa, a progressive sort who won the Rosebery Handicap at Kempton, pulling three lengths clear despite an awkward head carriage. The four-year-old is a three parts brother to Irish 2,000 Guineas winner Awtad and is by Golden Horn.

Gosden pere et fils were also in good form in Dubai at the Dubai World Cup meeting, with 2020 Prince of Wales's Stakes winner Lord North winning the Dubai Turf and last year's Prix du Jockey-Club winner Mishriff winning the G1 Sheema Classic, demonstrating in the process that he can handle 12f. According to Gosden, the four-year-old, who has also won the valuable Saudi Cup over 9f this winter, will be campaigned with the Arc de Triomphe in mind after being freshened up.

In France, the first Group race of the season, the G3 Prix Exbury at Saint-Cloud, was won by Skalleti, who made a comfortable return to action with a three and a half length victory over G3 winner Grand Glory. Trained in Provence by Jérôme Reynier, the son of Kendargent is a dual winner of the G2 Prix Dollar and was second to Addeybb in the G1 Champion Stakes last October.

Last season's G1 Prix Marcel Boussac winner Tiger Tanaka was beaten into second in the Listed Prix La Camargo (an early prep race for the French Guineas) by Sweet Lady (Lope De Vega), whose juvenile campaign had seen her pitched into G1 company against colts in the Critérium de Saint-Cloud, where she managed sixth place.

The Listed Prix Omnium II for the colts was won by Galik, who beat the well-regarded Easter into second. In this race last year (run before lockdown), The Summit filled the runner-up position, going on to win a Group Three and finish second twice in the Classics.

Galik is by Galiway who, like Golden Horn and Shalaa, is one of the Black Type Digest's "Young sires to consider in 2021" – see the full analysis in the Sire Lists Special, which was emailed at the end of January. Galiway now has five stakes winners to his name, three from his first crop and two from his second, headed by G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere winner Sealiway.

Shalaa had his first European stakes winner when King Shalaa won the Listed Prix de la Californie at Cagnes-sur-Mer in February, having also been the sire of a Group Three winner in Australia over the winter.

The Group Three Park Express Stakes at Naas on Sunday was won by the Willie McCreey-trained Epona Plays (Australia), who had also won a Group Three as a three-year-old last season. Australia had a stakes double on the card, with Aidan O'Brien's five-year-old Broome (third in the Derby in 2019) winning the Listed Devoy Stakes at the start of a campaign that could take in the Tattersalls Gold Cup and the Coronation Cup.

O'Brien introduced a smart two year old in the shape of the beautifully-named Tenebrism (Caravaggio) – the name references the expanses of shadow in Caravaggio's paintings, being derived from the Holy Week Tenebrae services, when darkness descends as candles are extinguished psalm by psalm. Tenebrism was the first runner for his freshman sire, and looks likely to head to Royal Ascot after this impressive three and three quarter lengths debut success. He is out of Immortal Verse, the winner of the Coronation Stakes and Prix Jacques le Marois (where she beat Goldikova) for Robert Collet in 2011.

O'Brien also won the mile maiden with multiple Group One winner Minding's sister Empress Josephine, who won by a length and a quarter with something in hand on her belated debut.

This is the first of the weekly editions of the Black Type Digest in 2021, with results and winner's pedigrees for stakes races in Britain, Ireland, France, Germany and Italy.

The first three issues of 2021 will be free as before. From issue 4 (Craven Stakes) onwards the full pdf will be available only to paid subscribers. Details of how to subscribe (for a monthly fee of £6) will be published in April. I hope you will consider supporting the Black Type Digest and the-racehorse.com in this way and that you will find the weekly overview of European black type action and the attached results and pedigrees a valuable resource.

Non-subscribers will continue to receive a weekly email with a high-level review of black type action from the previous week, but will not receive the pdf with the full results and pedigrees.

See you next week for the Prix Edmond Blanc edition.
