

Welcome to the Black Type Digest with the weekly survey of stakes results and winners' pedigrees for European stakes races.

The Group race of the week was the G3 Prix Edmond Blanc at Saint-Cloud on Saturday, where the prevailing good ground from the fine spring proved the determining factor in the race. Last year's Queen Elizabeth II Stakes winner The Revenant, who had won this race on its last running in 2019, was making his seasonal debut but, giving 3kg to his rivals and lacking the deep going that he favours, he could manage only third behind the in-form and improving winner Wally (Siyouni).

Wally had been entered in the race by trainer Jean-Claude Rouget after a successful campaign at Cagnes-sur-Mer, where he won twice, most recently in the Listed Prix Saonois. The four-year-old son of Siyouni is the first foal out of G2 Oaks d'Italia second Full Of Beauty and sold for €130,000 as a yearling at Arqana. Connections are now considering Group One targets.

Siyouni had a stakes double this week, with Tertius running out a dominant winner of the Prix Cor de Chasse at Fontainebleau, the second career stakes win for the five-year-old.

All-Weather Championships Finals Day was held at Lingfield on Friday. The day's feature, although not a black type event, was the Easter Classic which was won by Andrew Balding's Bangkok (Australia) who closed the door on Winter Derby winner Forest Of Dean on the home turn and overhauled Palavecino to win by a neck. Bangkok had won the Listed Winter Derby Trial in February and then ran in the Saudi Cup, where he was eighth. The winner of the G3 Classic Trial in 2019, he is likely to run at Chester in the G3 Huxley Stakes next month.

The most impressive performance of the day came from the Roger Varian-trained Khuzaam (Kitten's Joy) who bolted up by five lengths in the All-Weather Mile Championships. If the five-year-old can translate his best form to turf he will be a force to be reckoned with in mile Pattern contests this season.

Clive Cox was delighted with the performance of Diligent Harry in the Three-Year-Old Championship, where he won by two lengths over G3 Sirenia Stakes winner Mighty Gurkha. Diligent Harry was unraced until January but has now won three of his four starts and will be aimed at the G1 Commonwealth Cup at Royal Ascot. Cox holds the son of Due Diligence in high regard, saying: "He's as exciting as a few of the good sprinters we've had, but as he's done a lot in a short time, I shall give him a recharge now."

Three-year-old Kingman colt Megallan won the Listed Burradon Stakes over a mile at Newcastle, knuckling down well to beat Legion Of Honour by half a length. He has gradually been learning his trade for John and Thady Gosden, running unplaced in the Autumn Stakes and Futurity Trophy last season, but settling well here and he could run next in the Feilden Stakes at Newmarket. Bred by Anthony Oppenheimer, he is out of a Listed-winning half-sister to Golden Horn.

The Listed Noblesse Stakes at Cork saw G1 Prix du Cadran winner Princess Zoe sent off favourite, but she disappointed. The Paddy Twomey-trained Moll (Camelot) came out on top, and her trainer holds her in high regard, saying after the race: "She was fourth to Even So at Naas last year, and was only beaten three lengths, but got injured. Moll has top-class ability, and I supplemented her for the Irish Oaks last year – and I wasn't messing when I did it. If there is an ease in the ground she'll run in the Munster Oaks back here in June. She has the ability to go all the way. But she has been physically immature – and everything she is doing, she is doing on natural ability."

Even So, the winner of last season's Irish Oaks, is also by Camelot, and it was reported this week that she has been sold to Japan as a broodmare.

As the new season gathers pace, included on page 2 is a reference table of sires with first crop runners this season. This gives details of the initial fee for this crop of stallions, and their first crop foal and yearling averages. Darley's King's Stand winner Profitable became the first freshman sire to get off the mark when Thunder Love, his first runner, won at Kempton last week.

On page 3 you will find a table of leading sires of two-year-olds in 2020 – as the season develops we will see whether Kodiak's phenomenal 2018 crop can continue their form as three-year-olds (33% of his wins have historically come from his 3yo's, against 36% for his 2yo's, so this crop should continue in formidable form) and whether Mehmas' stock prove as effective at three.

This is the second of the weekly editions of the Black Type Digest in 2021, with results and winner's pedigrees for stakes races in Britain, Ireland, France, Germany and Italy.

The first three issues of 2021 will be free as before. From issue 4 (Craven Stakes) onwards the full pdf will be available only to paid subscribers. Details of how to subscribe (for a monthly fee of £6) will be published in April. I hope you will consider supporting the Black Type Digest and the-racehorse.com in this way and that you will find the weekly overview of European black type action and the attached results and pedigrees a valuable resource.

Non-subscribers will continue to receive a weekly email with a high-level review of black type action from the previous week, but will not receive the pdf with the full results and pedigrees.

See you next week.
