Presents: Return to Form 3 - NYC

Teachers and Graduates from New York Academy of Art
625 8th AVE - Port Authority Bus Terminal South Building 2nd Floor

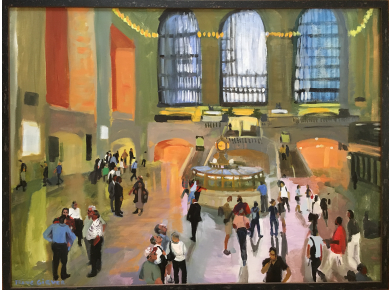

A fine art homage to the returning of New York City and a nod to the figurative, form emphasis of NYAA. The Academy is an internationally acclaimed fine art school founded in 1982. The New York Academy of Art serves as a creative and intellectual center for all artists dedicated to highly skilled, conceptually aware figurative and representational art.

Morning Taxi	acrylic on wood 11" x 14" $800	 An acrylic painting of a city street scene. The scene is viewed from a low angle, looking down a street. On the left, there are several multi-story buildings with varied architectural styles, including one with a prominent tower. A white taxi is visible in the middle ground, driving towards the viewer. The sky is a clear, bright blue. The overall style is impressionistic with visible brushstrokes.
Route 7 West	acrylic on wood framed 15" x 12" $800	 An acrylic painting of a sunset or sunrise over a road. The sky is filled with vibrant, textured brushstrokes in shades of orange, yellow, and blue. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a strong glow. In the foreground, there are dark silhouettes of power lines and a road. The overall mood is dramatic and atmospheric.
Verrazano Bridge	acrylic on wood framed 11" x 19" $800	 An acrylic painting of the Verrazano Bridge. The bridge is the central focus, with its large concrete piers and suspension cables clearly visible. The bridge spans across a body of water, which is painted in various shades of blue and green. The sky is a pale blue with some light clouds. The overall style is more realistic than the other two paintings.
