Dear Friends,

We’re thrilled to announce that we’re now 80% of the way to our fundraising goal for The Salon of Authentic Journalism! With your help, we can cross the finish line this week and fulfill the dream of training a new generation of brave, socially committed storytellers. You can make a gift here: <https://www.gofundme.com/f/2025-salon-of-authentic-journalism>

To celebrate how far we’ve come—and to help The Salon reach its final goal—we have an exclusive reward available for just 27 people: Bill Conroy’s powerful book, Dispatches from the House of Death. It is a gripping, meticulously researched look into the dark heart of the U.S.-Mexico drug war.

Bill’s investigative work is essential reading on the failed War on Drugs. This book exposes the shocking story of the House of Death in Juarez, where an ICE informant embedded in the Juarez Cartel was tied to a series of gruesome murders—while U.S. officials turned a blind eye. During his lifetime, Al Giordano played a pivotal role in helping Bill bring this story to light through Narco News. “It is a giant of a story,” Al said of Conroy’s work. “There is simply no way to understand the ‘war on drugs’ without reading this book.”

Now, you can support The Salon—the continuation of Al’s legacy—and receive this extraordinary book as a thank you.

Here’s how to claim your reward:

- $20 donation = Dispatches from the House of Death (eBook)
- $50 donation = Paperback edition
- $75 donation = Signed Paperback edition

After making your donation, simply reply to this email [thefund@authenticjournalism.org] to let us know you'd like to claim your book. This is more than just a fundraiser. It's about honoring AI's legacy, supporting investigative journalism that holds power accountable, and building a space where storytellers and organizers from around the world can gather to sharpen the tools of Authentic Journalism in support of movements for democracy and social justice.

Thank you for being part of this amazing project. Help the Salon hit its goal together!
