

Mythop pair triumph in Memorial event

The annual Irene Howard Memorial Trophy crown green tournament was held at Marine Park Bowling Club in Fairhaven.

This ladies' doubles competition was won by Andrea Holt and Caroline Wilkinson of Mythop Bowling Club.

The runners-up were Lynnda Cook and Iris Cooper of host club Marine Park.

The purpose of the competition is to raise money for charity and this year's chosen charity was The Multiple Sclerosis Society.

A total of £650 was raised for the charity and the organisers wish to thank all the competitors and supporters as well as Marine Park for hosting the event.

Thanks also to Sue Sinclair for officiating.

Tim Laycock, a former bowler with the Mythop Club, who has multiple sclerosis, kindly assisted with the presentations.
