

HONG KONG - June 24, 2018 - PRLog -- America 2030 Capital Limited and America 2030 Capital, LLC have both recently executed contracts on 3 stock loans. Stock loans are loans collateralized by publicly traded securities. The securities were trading on Hong Kong stock exchange, Singapore stock exchange, USA stock exchange, Canada stock exchange, London stock exchange as well as Vienna stock exchange.

Borrowers were of various citizenships and the loans varied in size. Typically the loans amount is based on 50% to 80% of the value of the stock trading on their respective stock exchanges.

The terms of the loans varied from 2 to 5 years and the most borrowers are either cashing out or using the loan proceeds for expansion of their businesses.

Also during this period, America 2030 Capital entered in to arrangements with new securities broker dealers to custody the securities pledged to it as collateral. The broker dealers typically act as an intermediary between the borrower and the lender, act as a trustee and follow the Power of Attorney (POA) granted by the borrower to the lender. In most cases America 2030 Capital is to be the lender and funder of these transactions.

When we asked Val Sklarov of America 2030 Capital "what contributes to their success and what does the future hold for stock loans", Mr. Val Sklarov had this to say:

"Our competitive advantage to other stock lenders is our professional and timely response, together with rapid ability to deliver and execute. We offer highly competitive loans backed by publicly traded securities through our international network of financial advisors who trust our knowledge, low interest rates and high Loan to Value (LTV). We can offer loans up to 80% LTV for select stocks at annual rates as low as 4.5% and nobody can beat that.

As far as the future holds for stock loans, it is extremely bright and dynamic and this niche industry continues to grow and expand and our firm continues to lead and deliver results worldwide. We've built a great relationship with our network of professional financial advisors and these solid relationships are paying off. We are also continuing to enter new markets and channels and welcome new distribution points for a much needed product. Our presence in the UK, USA, Hong Kong and Offshore Nevis is able to customize unique financing solutions for the savvy elite shareholder Many people do not want to sell or can't sell or do not want to pay capital gains taxes, so a stock loan benefits the ultra wealthy. We will close hundreds of millions of dollars in stock loans each and every year"

America 2030 Capital Limited is poised to rapid growth and expansion as it builds its balance sheet of stock loans. It also has entered the South and Central American market as well as Middle East and those efforts have been paying off.

America 2030 Capital Limited is an international boutique M&A and securities lending firm transacting in various types of securitized loans and other types of financial debt & equity transactions. One of its primary products are stock loans or commonly known as securitized lending whereby a shareholder of a public company pledges their shares to a lender in return for debt at low rates. These loans commonly are non-recourse and similar to margin lending offered by stock brokers.
