

Canadian Astronauts

FCpl D'Silva

Why is it important?

What are some Canadian Astronauts?

What have they done?

- Marc Garneau
- Roberta Bondar
- Steve MacLean
- Chris Hadfield
- Robert Thirsk
- Bjarni Tryggvason
- David Williams
- Julie Payette
- Ken Money

Roberta Bondar

- Missions Completed: STS-42 from January 22 - 30.
- Place and Date of Birth: 1945, December 4th. Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario
- Education: University of Guelph, Toronto, Mississauga Toronto, McMaster, Western, Brooks Institute.
- Professional Experience: After working at NASA as head of the Space Medicine Team, she ended her career doing educational speeches across Canada.
- Special honours: NASA Space Flight Medal.
a medal used to represent exemplary success and development of an individual through NASA.

Chris Hadfield Shows Effects of Space

Marc Garneau

Missions Completed: STS-41. STS-47,
STS-77

Place and Date of Birth: February 23, 1949.

Education: RMC, CFC, Imperial College of London

Professional Experience: 20 years at NASA
after last mission
Currently Canada's Minister of Transport

Launch of STS-41-G

Chris Hadfield

Born: August 29, 1959 (age 61 years), Sarnia, Ontario

Space missions: Expedition 35, STS-74, STS-100, Soyuz TMA-07M, Expedition 34

Has his own RCAC Squadron named after him

Education: University of Tennessee Space Institute

Space Oddity, Chris Hadfield onboard the ISS

Brushing Your Teeth in Space and Onboard the ISS

Julie Payette

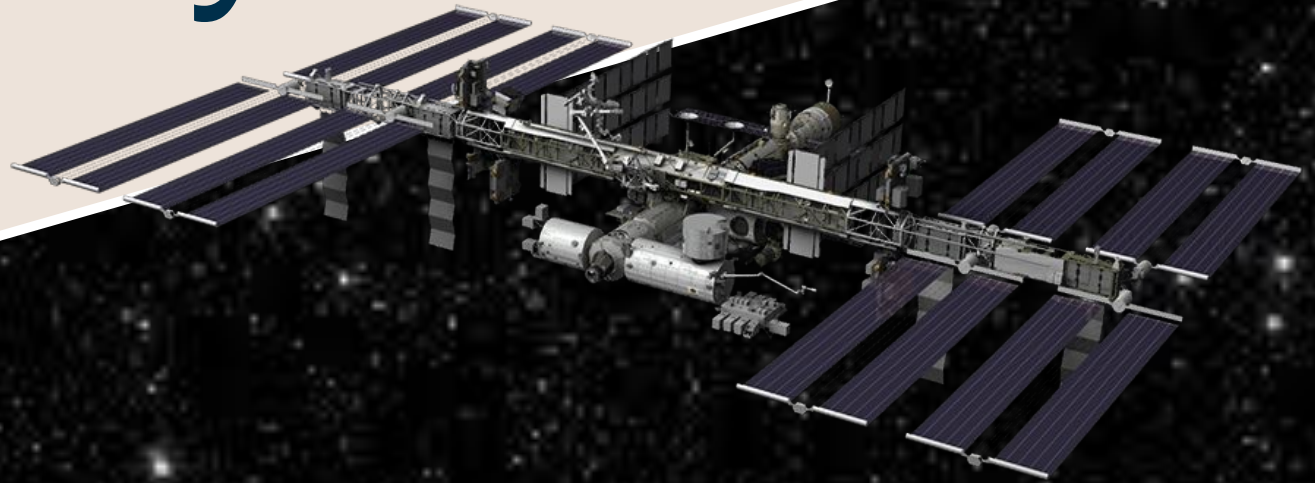

Born: October 20, 1963
(age 57 years), Montreal

Space missions: STS-96,
STS-127

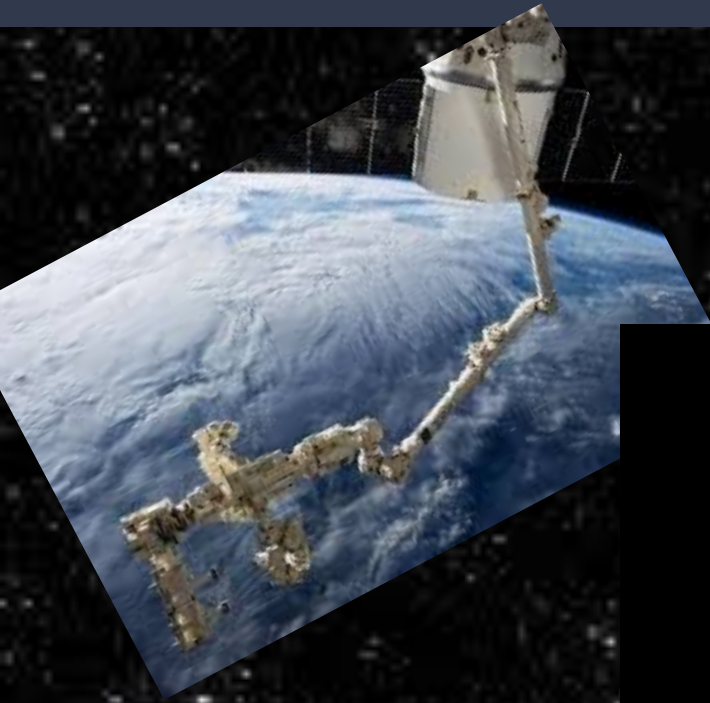

Governor General

Education: University of Toronto Faculty of Applied
Science and Engineering

Canadian Space Agency

The Canadarm

Canadarm 2

The Eagle

Alouette

