

INTERVIEW WITH SPENDOE

Nov 12, 2020 | Interviews

Born on the coast in Santa Cruz, CA, SpenDoe began taking music seriously, after meeting some older guys from San Francisco as an early teen. SpenDoe wanted to establish himself as a rap artist. Over the years SpenDoe moved around alot. He would often find people to work with; in order to build a name. SpenDoe had to experienced life's highs/lows. Music was something that he took a real interest in. Creating was natural. It was a way for SpenDoe to express many things . SpenDoe has worked with many known/unknown artists. Some of these artists are: No Limit Forever's Krazy (504 Boyz), Young Bleed (No Limit Records, C-Loc, Strange Music), FMZ (CRUZMATIK), C-DUBB, Feady Crocka , Kaoz The Assassin (RIP), Baby S, R. SOL, Day Day. Since getting into the music scene, SpenDoe has, and continues to work relentlessly to push his craft. Coming with a west coast vibe, and a bay-area mob sound (Popular style of music that helped shaped the bay area rap culture of the 90's). SpenDoe writes his own songs, and has production from The SlapMaster, C-DUBB, DJ ULTIM8M. In 2020, with everything going on around us, he managed to release many different titles. Since Jan 2020, SpenDoe has released 2 solo albums, 2 group albums, 1 group ep, 1 solo ep, 8 singles, and a few compilations. He works around the clock, alone for the most part. October 2020, SpenDoe linked with longtime associate Feady Crocka at Done Deal Digital, and will be releasing his first ep under the label on 11/20/20. SERVIN is a 5 track, gritty, old school bay area sounding project. C-DUBB and The Slapmaster handle the production. The single "We AT The Table" features a verse from the late great "The Jacka" of The Mob Figaz. Look out for SpenDoe and Done Deal Digital
