

SPENDOE

SpенDoe is back with a heavy hitting single titled “Winnin”, and the California artist is doing just that. SpенDoe shows no signs of slowing down. SpенDoe continues delivering various releases just as he did last year. This time around, SpенDoe has upped the promotions and marketing since teaming up with Done Deal Digital; working closely with longtime affiliate Feady Crocka.

The two have been working together on various releases, since dropping the “SERVIN” EP last fall. SpенDoe continuously works around the clock to stay current, and ahead with his various projects. As of late, he has lined up quite a few singles with releases dates. He is working on music visuals to accompany these releases as well.

“Winnin” is a heavy hitting mob slap, with a dreamy instrumentation to accompany the lyricism of SpенDoe who flows perfectly on beat, discussing life, and living it up with his “ride or die” under certain stipulations. On the new single SpенDoe can be heard saying “you can be there for me, or you can keep it movin. Ain’t no glass ceiling with me, baby I do this!” SpенDoe is referencing there are no limitations to reaching success with him, as long as one is willing to keep things 100, and go the distance.

The production on “Winnin” was handled by Indecent The SlapMaster, who has produced a few different songs for SpенDoe (Smiles & Cries). Stay connected with SpенDoe and Done Deal Digital for current events, as well as future releases.
