

SpenDoe & C-DUBB

Professional Mobbin: The Cali Way

Santa Cruz, CA & Sacramento, CA: - September 01 – When two hungry and energetic creators connect, amazing things are bound to happen. Santa Cruz, CA native SpenDoe had been moving around California's central valley, after leaving the coastal region some time ago. SpenDoe had been looking to get some remixing completed, when he found Sacramento's C-DUBB open for business. Following SpenDoe's contracted remix work; he began working with C-DUBB on a group project.

Initially, SpenDoe & C-DUBB was going to be an EP. The Sacramento MobMuzik artist/producer/engineer continued to record with SpenDoe, resulting in a full-length album of hard-hitting tracks. Both artists can be heard, trading verses and hooks across a blend of "mob-era" inspired tracks that many music listeners are sure to enjoy. During the recording process, the two artists faced continuous barriers, but continued to push forward.

With mob-era inspired tracks and west coast party vibes, Professional Mobbin: The Cali Way should be an energetic vibe for hip hop fans. On "Itz That California" SpenDoe & C-DUBB really show their love for California, and the culture they embrace. Another track repping the golden state is the g-funk inspired "California G Sh*t" where listeners can drift off, and envision low-riders hitting switches, and block parties fueled with California love.

We all draw inspiration from someone or something (if not many). These two rising hip-hop stars aren't new to the corner, as they've been grinding out names for themselves among the masses. Today, C-DUBB is an icon of the Sacramento hip hop scene due to his quality music, consistency, and exceptional networking skills across many states, and abroad. C-DUBB's rapping style makes him stand out among the many artists and producers in Northern California.

SpenDoe is known for his networking skills, traveling, and being able to jump off the porch at a moment's notice, and hit the ground running. SpenDoe has proven himself to be on "grind mode" with whatever he is doing. His lyrical style is quite versatile, as he is able to create different types of content over a wide array of tracks. SpenDoe can carry himself over tracks like "Professional Mobbin" and "Mob Work" with ease, and then flip like a light switch to tracks like "Grind All Night" and "Bay 2 Sac" to get the party jumping. SpenDoe is an up-tempo rapper, who can slow things down to make slumps for block hitters, bringing his own street knowledge to the table.

This music personality is not only a hip-hop artist but also a poet. He is a visionary. He is a lyrical storyteller who shares real-life experiences through his music based on growing pains in California. While SpenDoe can be heard mentioning palm trees and beaches in some of his songs, life for this west coast lyricist hasn't been all sunshine and ocean waves. Possessed with a strong will to excel in the field of music, along with the natural ability and intense determination to do something big in life, has made SpenDoe a highly watched talent in California and beyond. The album features C-DUBB's fellow Sacramento rapper T-Nutty, and SpenDoe's Oakland, CA affiliate Day Day. Professional Mobbin will be available on all platforms 09/01.
