OLD COLONY ELDER SERVICES DONATES TO BSU SCHOLARSHIP

Old Colony Elder Services, the non-profit agency serving older adults and individuals with disabilities throughout greater Plymouth County and surrounding communities, recently made a $1,000 contribution to the Edward T. Donovan Social Work Scholarship Fund at Bridgewater State University in recognition of National Professional Social Work Month. Edward T. Donovan was the Executive Director of Old Colony Elder Services for almost 20 years. The scholarship was established to honor his memory. The recipient is a junior or senior social work major from Plymouth County or surrounding communities with a grade point average of 3.0 or higher.

CONWAY EMPLOYEES WALK TO AID HOSPICE

For the 19th consecutive year, a team of Jack Conway Realtors participated in the Annual Walk for Hospice at the South Shore Plaza in Braintree on Saturday, March 24. The Conway team raised more than $2,500 at the event, which drew more than 1,500 walkers to the mall to raise funds for end-of-life services provided by the South Shore Health System. A total of $170,000 was raised by 72 teams, individuals, volunteers, and corporate sponsors.
