

MOVERS & SHAKERS

Business people on the move

SPOTLIGHT

Glenn Tattrie of East Bridgewater has joined South Shore Habitat for Humanity as secretary to its board of directors. A Brockton native, he is the chief risk and compliance officer with South Shore Bank, headquartered in Weymouth. In this role, he will work with fellow officers, other board members and Executive Director Martine Taylor to further the organization's work to help provide housing for people in need. Since its founding in 1986, South Shore Habitat for Humanity has completed 58 homes in 21 towns. Tattrie, a Marine Corps veteran, is chairman of the capital improvement planning committee in East Bridgewater, a committee he has served for the past 20 years and is in his 12th year as a volunteer Boy Scout Leader in East Bridgewater.

Glenn Tattrie

REAL ESTATE

Desiree Etienne has joined the Abington office of Jack Conway. She has worked in the insurance and real estate fields in southeastern Massachusetts since the early 2000s. She immigrated from her native Antigua to the U.S. in 1994. She earned a bachelor's degree in business administration at Eastern Nazarene College in Quincy and a master's degree in business administration at the University of Phoenix.

Desiree Etienne

RETAILING

Jim Fitzgerald of Hanover, will take over as president of VERC Enterprises, a 40-plus year old, second-generation family business in the convenience store/gasoline station industry. In this role, Fitzgerald, who has been with the company for 22 years, will oversee the day-to-day operations of the company. He is the first non-family member to serve as the company's president. Leo Vercolone, who will serve as chief executive officer but will turn over the day-to-day operations of the business to Fitzgerald, a Braintree native.

GET IN HERE

.....
■ Send us your Movers & Shakers. Submit photos and text about people on the move at your company to: biznews@ledger.com

