

2017 - THE YEAR IN REVIEW

Emily Clark takes a look back at Plymouth throughout the year Skippy's sold

VERC Enterprises became the new owner of Mayflower Food & Spirits at 164 South St. VERC is a well-known, local convenience store and Mobil/Gulf gasoline operator with locations throughout Eastern Massachusetts and New Hampshire, Mayflower is known for its Mobil gas station, and expanded convenience store with prepared meals, deli and homemade pastries. Charles "Skip" Carafoli and his father opened the gas station 40 years ago, expanding the enterprise into a "superette" 12 years later with six grocery aisles, a full deli counter, an in-house butcher and baker as well as a wide selection of beer, wine and liquor. In short order, Mayflower, which is also known locally as "Skippy's," became the go-to place for convenience shopping, a quick lunch or breakfast and, of course, a tank of gas. According to VERC Enterprises CEO Leo Vercollone, Mayflower would undergo "significant capital improvements" during the next few months.

Skippy's sold

