

POSITIVE LEADERSHIP CHECKLIST

- I treat my participants with respect
- I avoid sarcasm, put-downs and ridicule
- I praise my participants for participating
- I look for positives and publicly identify them
- I have reasonable and realistic expectations of my participants
- I remind my participants not to get down on themselves, particularly during adversity
- I encourage laughter and a sense of humour
- I stay calm when participants make a mistake
- I quietly and privately correct an participant's mistake
- I am a role model of good sportsmanship
- I never allow participants to gloat over winning
- I never allow participants to complain about losing
- I encourage participants to treat the opposition and officials with respect and fairness
- I encourage participants to congratulate the opposition, win or lose