

Northern California Hip Hop Artist M. Aundre Delivers His Debut Single “Altered State.”

Emerging California hip hop artist M. Aundre released his debut single “Altered State” on all music platforms 02/23. The brand new single is definitely one for music listeners to follow, in the New Year. There seems to be much about this calm and collected lyricist that is unknown. The allure of rising new talent, always keeps people watching.

With the release of his debut single, M. Aundre hopes to create a new lane with his sound. This talented songwriter’s natural connection with his audience is clear. As the Santa Cruz, CA artist says, “With my debut single, I wanted to take it back to another era, and still move forward with my sound.”

M. Aundre has an affinity for retro film/TV. He is an artist, whose background covers a wide array of areas. This is an artist who is constantly creating various works. The energy he carries, M. Aundre is often awake at night. He is bouncing off the walls, with ideas. Music is definitely an art, which the California native gravitated towards. Lyrically, M. Aundre is killing it. There aren't many stepping forward, in this manner.

It is always exciting to discover new music, particularly from such a talented emerging artist. It would be interesting to see M. Aundre cross genres. This is an artist, who can definitely make his way on various types of tracks. I’m quite sure that many will agree. I can honestly say that there's the allure. There is a certain curiosity that hangs, after hearing M. Aundre go bar for bar about the life. When can we expect more music? We will just wait, and see.

From the way this artist presents himself, it's not hard to see that M. Aundre is extremely talented. The vocal production throughout the song is great because most listeners are able to hear the passion that M. Aundre places behind each lyric. M. Aundre grabs the listener's attention immediately, allowing for a sneak peek into his life and the things he’s dealt with.

On the new single, he says “I’m living in a daze that many can’t share. I’m me and I ain’t perfect, ain’t nothing else there. Some things come in pairs, but with me, they broke the mold. I’ve been around the block, so I can never be sold.”

The song’s production is handled by Sureet Sandhu of Digital Desi Productions. M. Aundre happens to be one of those artists, you won't forget about. In his new single, he references various things relating to the experiences he has had.

Link to all music platforms: [M. Aundre - Altered State \[Single\]](#)

Connect with this artist: Linktr.ee