

Books, Monographs, and Text Books:Editor*

1. Brady JV, Lukas SE, eds. Testing drugs for abuse liability and dependence potential: methods used in animals and man. Washington, D.C.: U.S. Government Printing Office, 1984. NIDA Research Monograph no. 52, DHHS Publication no. (ADM)84-1332.

Author

2. Lukas SE. Amphetamines: danger in the fast lane. New York: Chelsea House; 1985.
3. Lukas SE. Steroids. Hillside, New Jersey: Enslow Publishers, Inc.; 1994.

Clinical Communications:

4. Stoll AL, Cole JO, Lukas SE. A case of mania as a result of fluoxetine-marijuana interaction [letter]. J Clin Psychiat 1991; 52:280-1.
5. Lukas SE. Goldstein and Kalant review of the complex nature of forming a balanced policy on substance abuse for individual users and the nation as a whole [letter]. Science 1991; 252:11-12.

Educational Material:

1994 Assisted with the design and content of the teaching exhibit in the Boston Museum of Science display entitled "Drugs on the Brain: Changing Your Mind." Also provided educational materials that became a part of the exhibit. Dr. Bertha Madras was the lead organizer of this project.

1996-2000 Developed a comprehensive course syllabus for Psychopharmacology of Drug and Alcohol Abuse that I teach at Harvard University Extension School using my direct experience in the field and is illustrated with many of my own original drawings/figures. The syllabus is updated each year.

Non-Print Materials:

6. Lukas SE. Amphetamines: Danger in the fast lane [videotape]. The Encyclopedia of Psychoactive Drugs, Schlessinger Productions; 1990.