

Legacy Partners are schools, national organizations and groups that support our mission. They participate in our program at no cost because they provide additional exposure for our Heritage Honor Roll legacy stories by hosting them on their Americans All home page(s).

State, regional or local divisions or chapters can also become Legacy Partners and create their own free Americans All Legacy Partner home page(s) on our Web site.

Thank you for setting up an Americans All “User Account” (10). Links to access all our benefits are on your “Welcome Back” page. Following are your most important options.

- By registering for the Americans All program for a one-time, tax-deductible fee of $49 ($24.50 with a registered school ID Number or a Legacy Partner Promo Code), you can preserve the memories, experiences and accomplishments of an individual or a group important to you. That legacy story can be shared forever on our Web-based Heritage Honor Roll and on the Americans All home pages of our Legacy Partners.
- You can become a point of contact for your organization, at no cost, so it can become an Americans All Legacy Partner.
- You can become a point of contact for a school, at no cost, so it can become a Legacy Partner and access our social studies resources, which are being used in more than 2,000 schools and libraries nationwide. The school can also use its 5-digit Gift Coupon Code (which it receives after the registration is completed) to create a free legacy story—in multiple languages, if desired—on our Web-based Heritage Honor Roll.

Legacy stories acknowledge that heritage and culture are rich aspects of personal and group identity and are part of the foundation left for family members and society. An online legacy story can be created and shared in multiple languages, if desired—complete with text, photographs, home movies and other video and audio enhancements—and updated at any time. To ensure privacy, a section of the story can be password protected. A shortened version can be printed out in an 8½" x 11" template to share with family, friends and associates. In addition, our secure e-mail tool enables members to communicate event, memorial and anniversary announcements. Americans All members also gain access to our education app.

Once registered for our program, Americans All members can subscribe to our Social Legacy Network for only $4 per month. As a thank-you from the People of America Foundation for supporting social studies education, the first three months of the subscription are free!

For the monthly fee, members and their family can:

- Electronically access the Americans All collection that includes new ethnic and cultural texts and songs, period-specific posters and photographs, reference texts and grade-level-specific teacher’s guides.
- Electronically access grade-level-specific resource databases with information that supports state history and civics content standards and testing requirements; embedded in the databases are links to strengthen learning opportunities and facilitate interdisciplinary connections.
- Take advantage of professional development opportunities that impart best practices for using these and other resources (e.g., sample lesson plans, simulations and test questions).
- Enjoy free enrollment in CollegeSave. This organization gives parents of newborns to high school juniors up to one full year of college tuition discounts, practical college savings advice, and a Personal College Savings Roadmap® and provides students with experts for homework help. Members will earn 1,750 points, worth $1,750 in tuition discounts (each point is worth $1 in discounts)—valid at more than 385 top colleges—during the free trial period, plus $250 worth of additional tuition discounts each month the Social Legacy Network subscription continues after the trial period ends. Even if an Americans All member opts not to continue the network subscription, he or she will keep the $1,750 worth of college tuition discounts just for trying this three-month trial subscription.
- Access e-newsletters with money-saving tips.
- Use membership cards for discounts on goods and services and other benefits from program partners.

Finally, by leveraging the public’s interest in legacy preservation, our program can continue to pursue its education mission to support excellence in K–12 social studies instruction. We invest more than half of our membership fees to strengthen history and civics education, so all students are better prepared to participate in our nation’s democracy, economy and workforce.

To ensure privacy, part of your legacy story can be password protected. For additional exposure, you can identify Legacy Partners and ask them to host your story on their Americans All home page. Members can also access our education app to listen to music and to view ethnic and cultural texts and period-specific photographs and posters—all highlighting the activities of groups who helped our nation grow. In addition, as an Americans All program member, you and your family can gain additional benefits by joining our Social Legacy Network for a small monthly fee.

Family, Group, Business or Organization Legacy Partner Home Page(s)

(11) Designating a point of contact to manage their user account, organizations can participate in our program as Legacy Partners, for free. They generate a home page(s)—in multiple languages, if desired—on our Web site to share information about themselves, better connect with their clients and customers, and demonstrate their commitment to strengthening their community. They can use their home page(s) to host legacy stories published by those important to them on our Heritage Honor Roll, thus providing additional exposure for these stories. Legacy Partners share discounts on goods and services and other benefits with Social Legacy Network members and other Legacy Partners.

School Legacy Partner Home Page(s)

A point of contact is required to create and edit a free Americans All home page on our Web site for each school. The home page can be published in multiple languages, if desired. Schools can use their home page to describe their activities and to host legacy stories of past and current students, teachers and their families published on our Heritage Honor Roll. School Legacy Partners can access the Americans All resources, including ethnic and cultural texts, period-specific photographs and posters and a music CD. They can also create and share, for free, a group legacy story on our Web-based Heritage Honor Roll—in text and through photographs, school movies and other video and audio formats.

Become a Legacy Partner

Legacy Partners are families, groups, schools and local, regional and/or national businesses or organizations whose missions reinforce our program's goals of creating and sharing legacy stories and supporting excellence in social studies instruction.

Legacy Partners participate in our program at no cost because they:

- Create free home pages on our Web site—for different locations and in multiple languages—to share information about themselves, better connect with their clients, and customers and staff;
- Host, on their home page(s) on our Web site, legacy stories of clients, associates and staff, published on our Heritage Honor Roll—created by members of the Americans All program—to provide additional exposure for these stories;
- Increase community visibility through support of local schools;
- Be searched on our Web site by name, language, category and location; and
- Share discounts on goods and services and other benefits with members of Americans All, our Social Legacy Network and other Legacy Partners.

Legacy Partners Receive an ID Number so clients, associates and staff can purchase an Americans All membership at the $24.50 discounted rate, without the organization incurring any administrative costs. The membership could also be included in an annual fee or gifted as an organization benefit. Moreover, Legacy Partners can access Americans All logos and marketing templates to communicate the importance of our program to their current and future clients and customers.

Irish Americans: Members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians

Fraternal Organization

The Ancient Order of Hibernians is America's oldest and largest Irish Catholic organization. It is made up of Irish and Irish-Americans dedicated to the promotion, protection and preservation of Irish culture and traditions in America.

Founded in 1836, the AOH grew from its roots in the new church. The he

The he cheering for the sons of Erin in American uniform while the charm of Irish domestics were winning admirers on the home front. The result was a decrease in prejudice against the Irish, and the Know Nothing movement, recognized for the bigoted group it was, faded away. The AOH, on the other hand, grew stronger as they worked their way across America. A Ladies Auxiliary was started in 1906 and incorporated as the Ladies AOH in 2004.

In more recent years, reduced anti-Catholic violence minimized the militancy of the AOH and allowed an increase in cultural and charitable activity. Today they support community charities of all religions and ethnic origins while preserving Ireland's ancient heritage. Annual dances, concerts, and parades sponsored at all levels of the Order raise millions for charity while providing a showcase for the positive contributions the Irish have made in every walk of American life. Hibernian Halls across the country also provide a welcome for new immigrants where the unique interests of the Irish are fostered, making the AOH a home away from home for many. Legacy Stories from the Americans All Heritage Honor Roll

We are pleased to host and share these legacy stories created by honorees' family, friends and associates. They, like us, appreciate that heritage and culture are an integral part of our nation's social fabric and want to help students participate effectively in our nation's economy, workforce and democracy.

Social Legacy Network members can select Legacy Partners, including schools, with which they or their honoree are affiliated to host their story on a Legacy Partner's Americans All home page. However, Legacy Partners maintain the right to accept or remove a legacy story. By clicking on the "Edit" button at the top of your Americans All home page, you will be taken to a page to remove or reinstate a legacy story as well as update your Legacy Partner home page.

If your home page is open when a legacy story is added, the page must be refreshed in order for the story to appear. Otherwise, it will automatically appear when you log in again.

To remove a story from a Legacy Partner home page, uncheck the box in front of the honoree's name and click on the "Publish" button. The honoree's legacy story will remain in the Americans All electronic database, and the honoree's name will remain on the Legacy Partner's "Edit" page. The legacy story will not be visible to the public on this home page. A notice of removal will be automatically sent to the creator of the honoree's legacy story.

If a legacy story was removed in error and should continue to be included on your home page, place a check in the box in front of the honoree's name and click on the "Publish" button. A notice of reinstatement will be automatically sent to the creator of the legacy story.
