Irish Americans: Members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians

Fraternal Organization

The Ancient Order of Hibernians is America's oldest and largest Irish Catholic organization. It is made up of Irish and Irish-Americans dedicated to the promotion, protection and preservation of Irish culture and traditions in America.

Founded in 1836, the AOH has chapters in every state and across the nation. The heritage of the AOH is a source of pride and cheer for Irish-Americans.

domestics were winning admirers on the home front. The result was a decrease in prejudice against the Irish, and the Know Nothing movement, recognized for the bigoted group it was, faded away. The AOH, on the other hand, grew stronger as they worked their way across America. A Ladies Auxiliary was started in 1906 and incorporated as the Ladies

Sample of a Legacy Partner home page. This home page can be used to host legacy stories, which can be published in any language.

In more recent years, reduced anti-Catholic violence minimized the militancy of the AOH and allowed an increase in cultural and charitable activity. Today they support community charities of all religions and ethnic origins while preserving Ireland's ancient heritage. Annual dances, concerts, and parades sponsored at all levels of the Order raise millions for charity while providing a showcase for the positive contributions the Irish have made in every walk of American life. Hibernian Halls across the country also provide a welcome for new immigrants where the unique interests of the Irish are fostered, making the AOH a home away from home for many.
