

The Irish National Caucus, the Irish lobby on Capitol Hill (D.C.), is a human rights organization dedicated to getting the United States to stand up for justice and peace in Ireland.

Americans All is the nation's only membership-based legacy preservation program with a focus on improving social studies education and helping small businesses succeed.

Individuals and family members who support INC receive more benefits by joining Americans All for a one-time fee of only $24.50 using the Discount Promo Code 564897. They:

- Can create and archive life stories that are vital to passing on family members' knowledge and experiences to current and future generations. Without storytelling, children neither will understand their roots nor develop their ethnic and cultural identity. Legacy stories published on our Heritage Honor Roll can contain photos and video links and be updated any time. Stories can also be created in multiple languages.
- Give students an opportunity to become proficient in written communication, a skill they need to succeed in college and the workforce. Moreover, if students help others less tech-savvy create a legacy story, they receive a free story for themselves.
- Acknowledge that storytelling can be a wonderful tool to reach and connect with current and future generations and constituents in their native language.
- Gain free access to the Americans All social studies resources used in more than 2,000 schools and libraries nationwide, a $500+ value.
- Can, after a free 3-month trial, join our Social Legacy Network for just $4 per month to continue receiving Legacy Partner discounts and gain access to more education resources. Through CollegeSave, subscribers can also earn up to $52,000 in credits for tuition discounts at more than 385 colleges nationwide.

Political Groups joining Americans All as Legacy Partners, for free, benefit by:

- Creating free home page(s) on our Web site—in multiple languages, if desired—to share information about the group and its members in order to better connect with current and future constituents.
- Hosting, on their home page(s), legacy stories that Americans All members have published on our Heritage Honor Roll to provide further exposure for these stories that show support for group members.
- Demonstrating their support of education, thus enhancing their ties to their communities.

Families who own or operate a small business or practice can also benefit by joining Americans All as a Business Legacy Partner for a 6-month, renewable fee of just $49. They:

- Receive free home pages on our Web site—for each location and in multiple languages, if desired—to share information about their business or practice and advertise discounts for current and future Americans All members.
- Get 2 free 7-digit Gift Codes (worth $49) to publish stories on our Heritage Honor Roll. One of these codes can be used to create a story on the business or practice and the other to create a story on the owner or founder. Every renewal includes two 7-digit Codes to gift to staff or family members.
- Host, on their home page(s), legacy stories that customers, clients and staff have published on our Heritage Honor Roll to provide further exposure for these stories. By doing so, a loyalty club is created or expanded for the business or practice to better connect with current and prospective customers and clients.
- Are listed on our Discounts and Legacy Partner landing pages, so Americans All members can identify Business Legacy Partners offering discounts on products and services.
- Can develop co-marketing strategies with other Americans All Business Legacy Partners.

Americans All is the nation's only membership-based legacy preservation program with a focus on improving social studies education and helping small businesses succeed. We invest half our membership fees to aggregate and distribute high-quality social studies materials that reflect multiple perspectives; schools, libraries and historical societies participate in our program for free.
