Registration Information to “Add Your Location to an Americans All Business Legacy Partner’s Account.”

The membership fee paid by Business Legacy Partners includes the ability to register and link, up to three separate locations to its account. Each location must create a separate “New User Account” and then click on the “Add My Location to a Business Legacy Partner Account” link on its “Welcome Back” page to set up the account. There is no cost to register, and each location will have its own Legacy Partner landing page—in multiple languages, if desired—to describe its products and/or services, list available discounts, and better connect with current and prospective

1. Click on the “Create New User Account” link at the top of our “Homepage” americansall.org to set up a free “New User Account”. This gives you access to your personalized “Welcome Back” page that contains links to obtain all program benefits, some of which do not require membership in Americans All (AA).
2. Our program has two main components: AA and the Social Legacy Network (SLN). After an individual creates a “New User Account,” they have two options. They can register as a free lifetime member in AA using their own email address, or become a point of contact (poc) for a Legacy Partner Alliance (LPA) entity—a school, nonprofit or a business—using the entity’s email address.
3. Tutorials are provided to assist nonprofits in navigating the site and its various functions. See: <https://americansall.org/page/americans-all-web-site-tutorials>
4. Your organization does not have to be a member of Americans All to create your Legacy Partner landing page. Your clients/customers can post their Heritage Honor Roll stories on your landing page, and you can post your own legacy story on the landing pages of other Legacy Partners to gain more exposure for the story. Make sure your staff and clients/customers know your 6-digit ID number, which will be different from that of the Business Legacy Partner.
5. The first step is for an entity is to appoint an individual as an agent, or point of contact (poc), to fill out their registration information. For continuity, the poc should be a permanent employee of the entity because he/she is the only person who can create, publish and update a businesses landing page(s) and its Heritage Honor Roll (HHR) story. You will need to know the 6-digit code for your Business Legacy Partner to complete your registration.
6. Second, the poc should create the businesses LPA landing page(s), which hosts legacy stories that customers, staff and clients have published on our HHR to provide further exposure for these stories. By doing so, an affinity club for the business is created or expanded.
7. Third, the poc can now register the entity as a member of AA, which enabled the entity, through the poc, to get the three-month free trial in our Social Legacy Network. Now the business can also receive discounts on goods and services from our other business partners through their poc’s account.
8. Businesses are automatically listed on both our Discounts page and our LPA landing pages, so Americans All members can identify those who are offering them discounts.

American All (AA) is a nonprofit community outreach and empowerment program. Our revenue-generating multipurpose storytelling tool helps leaders, at all levels, improve the mental, social and economic health of their constituents. The program uses a unique storytelling tool and its Social Legacy Network (SLN) to benefit students, community members, nonprofits, schools and local businesses—both socially and economically. It has two main components: a Heritage Honor Roll (HHR) that hosts stories created by its members, and Legacy Partner (LP) landing pages for businesses and nonprofits to share information about themselves, and if desired, host stories created by our members.

Lifetime membership in AA is free for all individuals, and it includes a three-month free trial in our SLN which enables them to get discounts on goods and services from our Business Legacy Partners (BLP). Students keep the free trial opportunity until their class graduates. After the trial period, AA members have the option to subscribe to our SLN for $4 per month, cancelable at any time, to continue receiving discounts; 77 percent of their gross subscription fee is donated to a school or education organization they designate. If the school is not registered, the funds are donated to their district. It is anticipated that members will subscribe since they should gain more in discounts than the cost of their subscription. If a member does not opt to join the SLN, their lifetime membership in Americans All is unaffected.

Members will never be automatically billed for the optional Social Legacy Network fee after their free trial and can cancel their subscription at any time once they subscribe. No credit card is required to be put on file for the free trial. In addition, we do not store credit card data, share or sell our members' contact information, allow pop-up ads or of AI.

Stories on our HHR can be autobiographical or about individuals, families, groups or issues/topics, contain up to 2,000 words (1,000 can be password protected for privacy), and be augmented with images, logos, hyperlinks, photographs, and audio-video media. They can also be published in multiple languages. In addition, membership includes creating a second story in English.

All stories can be easily updated and we archive all prior versions archived. Stories can be started by filling in only a few required fields and then be completed over time. In addition, members can also create a shorter version (up to 500 words) which can be printed in an 8½” x 11” format. Finally, AA provides step-by-step tutorials and easy-to-use templates to simplify the creative process.

What makes our program even more unique is that we include historical information to provide context for these stories and the experiences, observations and accomplishments reflected in them. Even though AA is no longer active in curriculum arenas, our online K–12 nonpolitical supplemental classroom resources presented in multiple perspectives, which were sold to more than 2,000 schools and libraries nationwide remain our site.

Storytelling helps families pass on knowledge and experiences to current and future generations. Research by the National Library of Medicine has shown that patterns of memory sharing begin early in one’s life, informing relationships, one’s history, and one’s sense of cultural belonging. Intergenerational knowledge of one’s family history is associated with positive mental health, wholeness and well-being. Life stories are central to one’s sense of self and the social world that they inhabit. Indeed, considerable research indicates that storytelling is fundamental to human development, cultural frameworks, and the cultivation of relationships.

Thank you for starting your registration for Americans All

A welcome message with further instructions has been sent to your e-mail address.

A message has been sent to your email address to create a password for your account. That password (which we do not keep) will complete your registration. To ensure that the integrity of our program is not breached, that email has a link for you to use to get to the "Create your password" page. Like the "Captcha" on your registration page, this is another way for us to block hackers from registering for Americans All. Once your registration is complete, you can begin accessing all program benefits by creating a new tab on your browser and inserting your email address and password to log back into Americans All. That will take you to your customized "Welcome Back" page which contains links to all program benefits and features.

Note:

I want to reinforce our promise not to share or sell any of the contact information you provide during the registration process. Your email address (which you use to log into Americans All) is used by us only to identify your account and your Zip Code enables us to know how many unnamed members we have in each geographic area. The free lifetime membership in Americans All enables you to create stories--in multiple languages, if desired--to be published on our Heritage Honor Roll.

During this pilot program, your membership in Americans All also includes a free, 3-month trial subscription to our Social Legacy Network. (Students maintain their membership until their class graduates.) This enables you to receive discounts on goods and services from local businesses and professional service providers. Knowing how many unnamed members we have in each geographic area is valuable data for us to share with local businesses to encourage them to participate, and we donate 77 percent of their membership fee to a school of their choice. After the trial period, our members have the option to subscribe to our SLN for $4 per month, cancelable at any time, to continue receiving discounts. Moreover, 77 percent of their gross subscription fee is also donated to a school or education organization they designate. It is anticipated that members will subscribe since they should gain more in discounts than the cost of their subscription.

Heritage Honor Roll Legacy Story, Individuals or Groups

Individuals or Groups become lifetime members of Americans All for free. A main benefit of membership is the ability to create and publish two stories in English—and as many as desired in multiple languages—for our Heritage Honor Roll. You will also receive a one-year free trial subscription in our Social Legacy Network (students keep their free trial until their class graduates). Your subscription enables you to receive discounts on goods and services from our program's business partners.

Americans All members will find it easy to start creating their legacy stories. Our template only requires individuals to fill in the honoree's name, date of birth (and date of passing, if appropriate) and a summary not to exceed 60 words. Legacy story text, hyperlinks, photographs, and audio and video media can be added over the story. The story can be 3½" x 11" in size. The story is password protected. To protect your privacy, the landing page is limited to two pages of as much text as you want. Students can earn service-learning credits by participating in our program. . . .

Businesses and Nonprofit Legacy Partners

A point of contact is required to act as an agent so it can create a free landing page—in multiple languages if desired—on its entity. They can generate landing page(s)—in multiple languages, if desired—for each location or chapter/district on our website to share information about themselves, better connect with their clients and members and demonstrate their commitment to strengthening communities. They can use their landing page(s) to host legacy stories published on our Heritage Honor Roll by those important to them, thus providing further exposure for these stories. Business Legacy Partners also offer discounts on goods and services with other Legacy Partners and subscribers to our Social Legacy Network. Businesses pay a fee of $98 per year, and at least 77 percent is donated to a school of their choice.

Schools

A point of contact is required to act as an agent for a school so it can create a free landing page—in multiple languages if desired—on our website. This enables it to receive funds from our Business Legacy partners. The school has the option of allowing stories to be posted on their landing page. The point of contact can also create and publish free stories on the school on our web-based Heritage Honor Roll. The story can be published in multiple languages, if desired, and can be enhanced through photographs, and audio and video media. Even though Americans All is no longer active in the Social Studies, English-Language-Arts, or any curriculum . . . a,

Business Legacy Partner are organizations whose missions reinforce our goals of enabling the creation and preservation of legacy stories, acknowledging the contributions of all Americans, supporting students participating in non-curriculum school activities, and raising funds for schools. They can be searched on our Web site by name, language, category and location.

They receive a 6-digit ID Number so their clients, members and staff can register for Americans All.

Business Legacy Partners pay a $49 fee that is renewable every 6 months. During the pilot phase, they receive a free, three-month trial in the program. For this fee, businesses and professional service providers can:

- Receive free landing pages on our Web site—one for each location and in multiple languages, if desired—to share information about your business or practice and advertise discounts for current and future Americans All members.

- Get three additional business accounts at no charge. These can be used for branch offices or to list your business under multiple categories at the same location. Every renewal includes the continuation of the three additional business accounts. The additional accounts register by clicking on the "Add My Location" link on their Welcome Back page.
- Host, on your landing page(s), legacy stories that customers have published on our Heritage Honor Roll to provide further exposure for these stories. By doing so, you begin creating or expanding an affinity club for your business or practice.
- Be listed on both our Discounts page and our Legacy Partner landing page, so Americans All members can identify Business Legacy Partners offering discounts on goods and services.

Allan S. Kullen Author, Business
Profile: Social Entrepreneur, Business

"Her name is Ester Baumgardner. Do you know her?" Allan Kullen had posed the question in a broken mixture of Hebrew and English to whoever would listen and could understand him. Allan had met Ester while on an archaeological dig at Masada in Negev, Israel. All he knew by the time they parted ways was her name and the fact that she was staying in Tel Aviv. So, after finishing his work, he decided he would try to find her. He hitchhiked his way to Tel Aviv and, despite all odds, found her. It was to play an important role in his life.

Alan S. Kullen (Portrait 01-1942 - 1942)

Allan was born in Washington, DC, on February 20, 1942, to Eunice (Stalard) and Sol Kullen, both originally from Baltimore, MD. His sister, Marian, was born two years later. He grew up in the DC metropolitan area. His father had built a successful career in the printing industry so, in 1959 after a very uneventful four years culminating in his high school graduation, Allan chose to attend the School of Printing Management at Carnegie Institute of Technology (CIT) in Pittsburgh, PA.

Americans All features photographs and texts on the contributions that immigrants made to the nation's development when they come through Ellis Island. At the same time, he was joining the Coordinating Committee for Ellis Island, a nonprofit group focused on the same topic. This action rekindled the passion generated by his travels abroad, and he founded and became president of the People of America Foundation and became co-

Civil War: Fifty-Fourth Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry Regiment, 54th Carney, Hollowell, Medal of Honor, Military, Shaw, Fort Wagner

Civil War: Fifty-Fourth Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry Regiment, 54th (Americans All Editorial Staff Massachusetts) (March 13, 1863 - August 4, 1863) Carney, Glory, Hollowell, Medal of Honor, Military, Shaw, Fort Wagner

On January 28, 1863, Secretary of War Edwin M. Stanton authorized Massachusetts Governor John Albion Andrew to create volunteer companies of artillery for duty in the forts of Massachusetts and elsewhere, and such corps of infantry for the volunteer military service as he may find convenient. Such volunteers to be enlisted for three years unless sooner discharged, and may include persons of African descent organized into separate corps."

On February 2, the Governor sent a letter to Francis G. Shaw, a prominent Boston abolitionist, to enlist his help in convincing Shaw's son, Captain Robert Gould Shaw, to command the 54th Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry. It would become the first regular army regiment of African American soldiers raised in the North. Captain Shaw, a commissioned officer in the Union Army, telegraphed his acceptance. Born in Boston on October 10, 1837, and admitted to Harvard College in 1856, Shaw had discontinued his studies in the third year to join the army. He entered the 7th New York National Guard, then received a commission as second lieutenant in the 2nd Massachusetts Infantry, and was later promoted to captain. As a result of his appointment to command the 54th Massachusetts Regiment, he received the rank of colonel.

Once his appointment was confirmed, Shaw began to recruit his soldiers. He was assisted by Lt. Colonel Norwood Hollowell (see his story below) and was later promoted to captain. As a result of his appointment to command the 54th Massachusetts Regiment, he received the rank of colonel. Shaw was not convinced about the fighting qualities of this new regiment, he was impressed with their dedication and devotion to the task. Throughout his career, he devoted himself to proving that his African

Allan Kullen
February 20, 1942 -

A Champion for Social History

Allan Kullen was born on February 20, 1942, in Washington, DC, and grew up in the area. His father had success in the printing industry, so Allan chose to attend the Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh, PA, after graduating from high school in 1959. He graduated from its School of Printing Management in 1963.

To gain more business training, Allan then entered an MBA program at the University of California, Berkeley. During his first year, he met representatives of NBBS, a Dutch travel organization that organized student trips to Europe, and began putting out a daily newspaper for the night-day crossing by sea. He also accepted an internship as a consultant for a printing company in Amsterdam. That fall, rather than returning home, he traveled extensively where, for the first time, he recognized the contributions that diverse cultures make to world history. Allan subsequently decided to enter the workforce rather than resume his schooling at Berkeley.

He began his career as marketing director for his father's printing firm, Kaufmann Press, Inc. When his father's company, Inc. (Pubco), he went to work for Pubco, first in the publishing division. When Pubco began to fail, Allan lost control of his own destiny, especially since he was now a father, Allison and Todd. In 1974, he acquired the assets of a printing Co., Inc., which he ran until 2013. During that period, he acquired or created eight smaller firms, at its peak achieving printing vendors also owned commercial educational to Todd Allan. He set up his own publishing company in the process, which featured photographs and texts on the and made to our nation's development. At the same time, he did so, a similarly focused nonprofit group.

During his interest in history, Allan then founded and became co-developer of its social studies resources (text and video), period-specific posters and developed by a team of scholars led by Americans All. Click here for step-by-step instructions on how to create a legacy story for an individual. You may want to print these instructions for future reference

Use this template to create your honoree's legacy story in English. Once it is published in the Heritage Honor Roll, use the link under "Actions" on your "Welcome Back" page to "Create a legacy story in an additional language."

By capturing the text in all fields on this template, our "Search Engine" will make it easier for members to locate your honoree's story.

To ensure the legacy stories published on our Heritage Honor Roll do not contain inappropriate language, all text is filtered through a secure, third-party Profanity App. If a word or phrase used in your story is on its "block" list, you will receive an error message at the top of the template when you click on the "Publish My Story" button. If that occurs, replace the word or phrase by using its first and last letters and put an "x" for each letter in between, such as "sxxt" or "fxkx you."

We can override the App's list of blocked words. If you believe the "blocked" word is appropriate, contact us by e-mail. Put the word "Profanity" in the subject line. In the body of the e-mail, identify the "blocked word or phrase" and include the sentence in which it is used. If our editorial board agrees that the word or phrase is appropriate, we will remove the word or phrase from the App's block list and notify you so you can insert the desired word or phrase in your story.

Note: Each time you change your honoree's legacy story, you must click on "Publish My Story" or "Save My Work."

Our Web site displays information in English using a standard Latin character set. At no additional cost, you can create your honoree's legacy story or a Legacy Partner's landing page in as many additional languages as you desire. However, each additional language cannot be used more than one time, except for those languages on the list that have been modified. To help you create either a story or a landing page, we have provided you with a copy of the English-language version to use as a guide. To create this new version, delete the English-language text and replace it with the new language text. Text and image fields that are not modified will remain the same as in the English-language version.

Similarly, you can post your Heritage Honor Roll stories to as many Legacy Partner landing pages as you desire, but each Legacy Partner landing page cannot accept more than one story from each member. Therefore, you must delete the 6-digit number of the landing page you selected for your English-language-version story from the new "additional language" template. This will not affect the English language version being posted to that Legacy Partner landing page.

To help you gain more exposure for your story, you can hyperlink all language-versions of your story to each other, or to the story of another member on our site.

Click here to learn how this can easily be done.

You can create your new story in two ways:

- If you can change your keyboard settings to the desired language, delete the English-language text and replace it with the new language text.
- If you cannot change your keyboard settings, prepare your honoree's story in the desired language offline and cut and paste it into the template to replace the English-language text

If you do not find the additional language you desire listed below, please contact us and put the word "Additional Language" in the subject line.

Note: Many words and expressions do not have the same meaning in all languages. To ensure your honoree's legacy story or Legacy Partner landing page in the new language carries the same meaning as the English-language version, we advise that you do not rely on an automatic translation app.

To assist you in creating your honoree’s legacy story in an additional language, we have provided you a copy of the English-language version to use as a guide. To create this version of your story, delete the English-language text and replace it with the new language text. If a field is not changed, the data from the English version will remain. Moreover, since Legacy Partner landing pages can only accept one story from each member, delete the 6-digit number of the landing page you selected for your English-language-version story from this new “additional language” template. Your English language version of the story will not be affected.

To help you gain more exposure for your story, you can hyperlink all language-versions of your story to each other, or to the story of another member on our site. Click here to learn how this can easily be done.

Note: Each time you change your honoree’s legacy story, you must click on “Publish My Story or Save My Work” or your changes will not be saved.

Sample Americans All Website Tutorials

Americans All members will find it easy to start creating their life stories. Our template only requires individuals to fill in their names, pertinent dates, and a summary that does not exceed 60 words. Additional story text, hyperlinks, and photographs can be added over time. The following tutorials will help you create and publish your legacy story. You can update your story anytime, for free; all previous versions are archived.

There are four major roles that Americans All members can have. A person (an individual or a group for which he/she is affiliated), a nonprofit organization, a school or education (a specific form of a nonprofit organization), and a business or professional service provider (and their respective offices and locations). A person can also be an agent (or Point of Contact) for a nonprofit or business member but must register separately using that organization's email address. Registration tutorials for each of the roles are below.

For individuals are used to using website templates, a shorter version of each tutorial has been provided.

Business Legacy Partners can host Heritage Honor Roll legacy stories of current and future clients and customers on their Americans All home page(s)—in multiple languages, if desired. If circumstances warrant, however, the business or practice can easily remove a story from its home page(s). By clicking on the “Edit” button on Americans All home page (B), you will be taken to a page to remove or reinstate a legacy story as well as update your Legacy Partner home page.

If your home page is open when a legacy story is added, the page must be refreshed in order for it to appear. Otherwise, it will automatically appear when you log in again.

To remove a story from a Legacy Partner home page, uncheck the box in front of the honoree’s name (C) and click on the “Publish” button. The honoree’s legacy story will remain in the Americans All electronic database, and the honoree’s name will remain on the Legacy Partner’s “Edit” page. The legacy story will not be visible to the public on this home page. A notice of removal will be automatically sent to the creator of the legacy story. (C)

If the legacy story was removed in error and should continue to be included on this home page, place a check in the box in front of the honoree’s name and click on the “Publish” button. A notice of reinstatement will be automatically sent to the creator of the legacy story. (C)

Remove or Reinstate a Legacy Story (In development)

Americans All members can select as many Legacy Partners landing pages as they choose to host their Heritage Honor Roll story. These are organizations with which they or their honorees are affiliated. However, Legacy Partners maintain the right to accept or remove a legacy story.

By clicking on the "Edit my Legacy Partner landing page" link under the "Actions" tab on your "Welcome Back" page, you will be taken to a page to remove or reinstate a legacy story as well as update your Legacy Partner landing page.

If your landing page is open when a legacy story is added, the page must be refreshed for the story to appear. Otherwise, it will automatically appear when you log in again.

To remove a story, uncheck the box in front of the honoree's name and click on the "Publish" button. The honoree's name will remain on the page (the box will be unchecked) and the story will not be visible to the public on your landing page. A notice of removal will be automatically sent to the creator of the story.

If the story was removed in error, check on the box in front of the honoree's name and then click on the "Publish" button. A notice of reinstatement will automatically be sent to the creator of the story.
