

skills in researching, critical thinking and, especially, writing—skills needed to help ensure their success in postsecondary institutions and/or the workforce in our increasingly global economy. Moreover, students can use their story to create virtual yearbooks for all the organizations in which they participate.

Each student that registers receives access to our supplemental social studies resources, a $650 value. In addition, we are in the process of creating a free homeschool resource center.

How it works for individuals: Lifetime membership in Americans All is free for individuals and enables them to create stories, in multiple languages for our Heritage Honor Roll. Included in that membership is a free trial subscription to our Social Legacy Network, which enables members to receive discounts on goods and services from our program business partners.

Students keep their free subscription until their class graduates. Community members get a free trial for three-months. After their free trials expire, individuals can continue to receive benefits for a $4 monthly fee; 77 percent of which goes to their family or an umbrella group they belong to.

How it works for businesses: A business pays $49 every six months to create a marketing-based landing page to offer discounts on goods and services to our members; and 77 percent of the fee goes to a school family of their choice or to an umbrella group that the family belongs to. These landing pages can also host the stories of their employees, clients or customers to give these stories greater exposure and to create or expand an affinity group. In addition, local businesses can create and publish stories about themselves on our website to help them better connect with their communities.

Moreover, businesses benefit because good storytelling builds trust and connections. Stories directly impact emotions, and emotions rather than data, change behavior and frequently determine decisions to buy.

Our storytelling tool: Members can create two stories in English and as many as they desire in multiple languages. If students have already created a story, they can repurpose it by adding enhancements and translations. Stories can be autobiographical or written about individuals, groups, or issues/topics (including honoring their family pet and its influence on their life), contain up to 2,000 words of text (1,000 can be password protected), augmented with images, logos, hyperlinks, photographs and audio-video media. A shorter version can also be created and printed in an 8½" x 11" format. Moreover, we do not share or sell any contact information, do not accept advertising and do not use pop-ups or AI.

Founded in 1956, the Howard County Historical Society is the primary private repository of historical records and artifacts related to Howard County's rich history. The Howard County Historical Society provides access to materials that aid in historical exploration, research, and discovery for all ages and cultural groups.

Throughout the year, the Howard County Historical Society presents a wide variety of engaging public programs, concerts, lectures, and other activities. The Society also welcomes donor groups, events, memberships, and groups, and the public to participate through field trips and outreach programs.

The Museum of Howard County (MHC) is housed in the former First Presbyterian Church which was generously donated to the Society in 1959 by Mrs. Julia Heaters Clark in memory of her late husband, Judge James Clark, Sr. The Clark Family was instrumental in founding the Historical Society.

Located next to the Court House in Ellicott City, the original church was a modest building constructed in 1837 that underwent during renovations in 1894. Rebuilt later that same year, the current Gothic Revival structure with its soaring 100-foot tall tower, heavily pitched roof and stained and leaded glass windows was designed by George Archer and constructed by Frederick A. Woodard, along with an extension.

Benefits of Storytelling to Students

Our unique storytelling tool offers many benefits for students participating in non-curriculum school activities. It can also make a positive difference in their personal lives.

- All stories begin at birth, and legacies are built each time a personal, academic or professional milestone is achieved. Every student has important experiences and lessons learned to share with family, friends and future generations. Creating and publishing a story about themselves (or their families) helps students develop skills in critical thinking, communicating, researching, and, especially, writing—skills needed to help ensure their success in postsecondary education and/or the workforce. For student-athletes, this is an ideal opportunity to showcase their talents to post-secondary institutions.
- Americans All enables each school club or team to set up its own free Legacy Partner landing page to host stories created by its members on our Heritage Honor Roll. Each of these landing pages can become a virtual annual yearbook. Students can post their current story on as many landing pages as they desire. If the members of the clubs and teams update their stories after graduation, their peers are kept current on their classmate's activities. For additional exposure, students can also post their stories on any Americans All legacy partner page.
- Our program also provides students with an opportunity to demonstrate that they understand and appreciate the value of community service and volunteerism. By helping others less skilled in the art of writing and the use of today's technology to incorporate images and recordings into their legacy stories, a student can earn service-learning credits. Moreover, storytelling can also be a wonderful intergenerational bonding experience, building compassion, empathy and understanding.
- Even though Americans All is no longer active in curriculum areas, our resources remain online to provide background for many of our Heritage Honor Roll stories. We will continue to host resources (now called issues/topics) that are academically well-researched and written, especially those that feature individuals or groups that make up local histories. A student can use their second Heritage Honor Roll story in English or set up an additional, free email membership account (<https://www.guru99.com/best-free-email-service-providers.html>) and select a “Group” story instead of an “Individual” story. Students will find it easy to start creating their stories. Our story template only requires individuals to fill in a name, date of birth and a summary not to exceed 60 words. Additional story text, hyperlinks, photographs and audio-visual media can be added over time. The story does not have to be completed in one session and can be updated at any time. All previous versions of the story are archived. Moreover, stories can be published in multiple languages. Only the student can edit the story, and half of the story can be privacy protected with a second password.

As part of their lifetime membership in Americans All, we offer our members a free, one-year subscription to our optional Social Legacy Network to receive additional benefits. Students keep their free trial until their class graduates. After the trial period expires, the cost is $4 per month to continue receiving these benefits, which includes discounts on goods and services offered by our program partners, such as restaurants and other businesses that cater to their needs. We believe the financial benefits that a member can receive from our business partners will more than cover their monthly subscription fee.

Contact with the Howard County HCEDA

Hi Allan,

Thanks for sending over this information and for thinking of us to participate in the Americans All program. It certainly looks like an incredible opportunity for the county.

Can you share with us what level of involvement you envision from HCEDA regarding a potential partnership? I'm cc'ing my colleagues, Chuck Bubeck (Exec Director of Maryland Innovation Center, our startup incubator as part of HCEDA) and Doug Holly (Entrepreneur in Residence for the MIC). I believe we are the best contacts for this but will be happy to connect you with others on our team as we determine more details around the potential partnership with HCEDA.

I'm also wondering if this partnership should take place between AA and Howard County Public Schools (HCPSS). Have you been in touch with anyone there? Happy to connect you.

Thanks,

Hi Allan,

I understand you've been reaching out via phone this week and have spoken with my colleague Jillian Joseph.

I wanted to reach out to touch base and reiterate our warm congratulations on the progress you have made in the last year for Americans All. We are not looking to set up a profile on the site, but will continue to support informally.

Thank you and take care,

Contact with the Howard County Partnership Office

Hi Allan,

I heard back from our Curriculum Office and learned that they are not interested in partnering because we already have a program in place that meets similar objectives. The existing program is called Story Strong. When we find that a potential opportunity is not possible, we try to offer other ideas that may be helpful, which is why I listed some plan B thoughts.

PTAs - If you are looking for contact information for high school PTAs, please see this link for the listing of all high school websites - Schools – HCPSS. Once you click on a school's website, scroll down to the bottom of the homepage to see a link to PTA information. For PTAs, they are separate organizations that have their own procedures. They do not typically need to contact our office; however, if they mention the need to reach out to us, you can refer them to me.

Clubs - Certain school clubs may be interested in your program. To get information about the various clubs at each high school, please see this link for the listing of all high school websites (this is the same link as the one listed above) –Schools – HCPSS. Once you click on a school's website, look under Student Life, Activities & Clubs for the listing of clubs. Each club should have a point of contact listed on the school websites. They are typically teachers who are serving as advisors. Those are the contacts you should be reaching out to.

If you find a potential match with a particular extracurricular club or PTA, please reach out to the point of contact directly.

Community News & Programs Page - Nonprofit organizations can distribute information through the school system by requesting that it be posted on the HCPSS Community News & Programs page. If you would like to share information about your programs with the public, please submit a post by clicking on the Add your Program link at the top of the page. For questions about this page, please contact publicinfo@hcpss.org.

HC Historical Society - I encourage you to continue working with the Howard County Historical Society.

HoCoPoLitSo - You may want to look into HoCoPoLitSo to see if they would be interested in a partnership.

To: Allan Kullen <allantapco02@gmail.com>

Hi Allan,

Thank you for updating me on your progress with Americans All. As I mentioned in our call, I believe this is an ideal program for the entire county to implement. Our Historical Society provides access to materials that aid in historical exploration, research and discovery for all ages and cultural groups. Continuing to add stories about those who have been instrumental in our county's growth is clearly part of our goal and this initiative would give us another vehicle to engage with students to do so.

I am pleased that your foundation recognizes that life stories are central to one's sense of self, of the social world they inhabit, and that knowledge of one's family history is associated with positive mental health, wholeness, well-being and a sense of belonging. As educators, we all share in that mission, especially in these times where our nation has become divided in so many ways. That environment can be especially troubling to our youth as they recover from the disruption and isolation created by Covid-19. Participating in activities that involve storytelling can help them feel more emotionally connected and welcomed.

By offering another way for our businesses to connect with our schools adds another dimension to the value that Americans All brings to our county. Our schools need access to unrestricted funds and this provides an ongoing way to achieve that goal.

Designing a program that will be owned by the county is a great concept. Let's plan on sitting down soon to discuss the specifics on how we can maximize its value to Howard County and the Howard County Historical Society.

Best wishes and let's talk soon,
Mark

Founded in 1958, the Howard County Historical Society is the primary public repository of historical records and artifacts related to Howard County's rich history. The Howard County Historical Society provides access to materials that aid in historical exploration, research, and discovery for all ages and cultural groups.

Throughout the year, the Howard County Historical Society presents a wide variety of engaging public programs, concerts, lectures, and other activities. The Society also welcomes school groups, clubs, home schools, adult groups, and the public to participate through field trips and outreach programs.

The Museum of Howard County (HCHS Court House) is housed in the former First Presbyterian Church, which was generally donated to the Society in 1959 by Mrs. Alta Higgins Clark in memory of her late husband, Judge James Clark, Jr. The Clark Family was instrumental in founding the Historical Society. Generations of Clarks have been on the board since the organization's founding, including Senator James Clark, Jr. and currently Martha Clark, Senior of Clarks' Elderly Farm.

Located next to the Court House in Ellicott City, an original church was a modest building constructed in 1837 that collapsed during renovations in 1934. Rebuilt later that same year, the current Gothic-style structure with its soaring 100-foot tall tower, stately steeple roof and stained and leaded glass windows was designed by George Keiser and constructed by Frederick A. Maynard. Along with an extensive collection of outstanding artifacts, textiles, furniture and memorabilia, the Museum is home to a refurbished 1855 organ built by the A.B. Fagermacher Organ Company of Erie, PA.

The Howard County Historical Society Archives and Research Library were originally kept in the Museum and then moved to the Ellicott Mills Quaker School, now known as the Wells Building, in 1998. In the fall of 2011, the Society moved its treasure trove of historical maps, deeds and property records, marriage licenses, voter records, slave manumission records and other histories as well as over 4,000 historical photographs, local 4th documents, business receipts, and many rare and invaluable private documents to the Charles E. Miller Branch Library and Historical Center on Frederick Road in Ellicott City.

Reading our past, weaving into the future.

Howard County's rich military history, our Maryland heritage, and the Society's mission of community outreach are the essential elements in the Official Howard County Historical Society Flag.

Formally adopted by the Board of Directors on July 9, 2002, our flag was inspired by the headquarters banner of General Bradley T. Johnson, a unique burgee (military flag) with a white field and red border in the center is a large cross bottomly red - an original symbol of Maryland and one that appears the date field. It's the same symbol as used in the Howard County flag.

Surrounding the cross is an elliptical circle of 12 stars with a thirteen star in the center, replicating the star pattern of the Third Maryland Regiment's colors. One of the Continental Army's most reliable units, the Third Maryland played a major role in the victory by American forces at the Battle of Cowpens, South Carolina in 1781. It was commanded by Captain John Sager Howard, for whom the County is named.

The white stars on the regional cross are gold with black interiors - representing our state colors, white, red, black, and gold. The stars are arranged so that a point on the star reaches out in all directions - symbolizing the Society's desire to reach out to future generations.

Over the cross bottomly in the shape of the Howard County Historical Society Museum, where the flag is from. We invite you to view the flag which was designed by the Society's Richard T. Clark, by visiting the Howard County Historical Society Museum.

Who We Are

Beginning in 1989, Americans All (AA) was one of the nation's first education nonprofits to provide K-12 schools with multiple-perspective, diversity-based, supplemental social studies classroom resources as well as activities for English Language Arts programs. After nine pilot programs, our resources were distributed nationwide to more than 2,000 schools and libraries. However, as our nation became more politically polarized, we needed to offer a program that would be accepted by as many schools and students as possible.

Although many of our resources are still useful in academic areas, especially our Ellis Island Simulation Workshop and our Photograph Collection, we repurposed two of the major components of Americans All—our Heritage Honor Roll and Legacy Partner landing pages, and used our storytelling tool to create a unique

What Volunteers Do

To accomplish this, we are in the pilot phase of implementing the AA program in three Maryland counties and in DC. (We will add PTSAs shortly.) Students participating in non-academic school activities can demonstrate their appreciation for the value of community service, create virtual yearbooks for their clubs and teams, and publish well-written and documented research. They are connected to local businesses through our unique storytelling tool which also produces a turnkey, revenue-generator for their schools and communities. Using lessons learned, we will expand the program to other Maryland counties and then to the nation. We provide students with an opportunity and a vehicle to use storytelling to:

- Learn how to use concise language and enhancing stories with photographs and other media. Students can record important events and memories as well as share their pride in their ethnic and cultural identity.
- Publish a legacy story on our Web-based Heritage Honor Roll to ensure the significance of a lifetime will not be forgotten and enables students to have a permanent and an accessible social media presence that truly describes who they are.
- Utilize storytelling as a wonderful intergenerational bonding experience that builds empathy, compassion and understanding.
- Help others less skilled in the art of writing and the use of technology to incorporate images and recordings into their legacy stories, a student can earn service-learning credits.
- Helping others create and enhance a story also demonstrates to prospective employers and postsecondary institutions a student's character and appreciation for how volunteerism benefits a community.
