

Americans All Pilot Program Highlights for High Schools

Who we are: We are a 36-year-old nonprofit membership organization managed by a for-profit benefit corporation. Previously, we ran nine projects across the country and, with help from Houghton Mifflin, sold our supplemental social studies materials to more than 2,000 schools and libraries nationwide.

Program status: Our virtual program is ready to start a pilot project for one year in Howard County, MD high schools and later, in either Montgomery County, MD or the District of Columbia.

Issues we now address: The current political environment in our increasingly diverse society is highly polarized and socially segregated, the economic forecast is uncertain, and consumer confidence is low.

- Community members, including high school students, want to find discounts when they shop.
- Businesses and professional service providers need to expand traffic and look for affordable and effective ways to do this.
- Public and private schools need more noncurricular resources to help produce a well-rounded education for their students.
- Homeschool families need access to inexpensive, non-political resources and a revenue-generating tool.
- All schools need an unrestricted stream of annual revenue that requires minimal staff to administer.
- Fewer than half of high school students nationwide believe they are adequately prepared for college and careers.
- Mental health professionals say many students need help to develop a positive sense of self.
- The nation needs a vehicle to help appreciate and reinforce the commonalities that unite, rather than divide, the American people.

Our solution: we are now a hybrid charity that raises money for schools and education nonprofits using our revenue-generating, multipurpose storytelling tool. This tool also helps leaders at all levels improve their constituents' mental, social, and economic health. All high school students and community members receive a free lifetime membership in Americans All, which enables them to publish stories on our Heritage Honor Roll. That membership also includes a trial subscription in our Social Legacy Network (SLN), which enables its members to get discounts on goods and services from our program's business partners. Students keep their SLN subscription until their class graduates.

Community members are free for three-months. After their free trials expires, individuals can continue to receive discounts on goods and services from our business partners via a subscription fee of $4 per month; 77 percent of the fee goes to a school of their choice. All funds are unrestricted. If a school is not registered, the funds are donated to an education organization in the county.

Extensive research confirms that life stories are central to people's sense of self and the social world they inhabit. It also asserts that intergenerational knowledge of one's family history is associated with positive mental health, wholeness, well-being and a sense of belonging. When people belong, they feel emotionally connected and welcomed.

Students can create stories honoring a family pet or sharing how it has impacted their lives

How schools participate: We recommend that the first step be the appointment a point of contact (poc) to register the school and create its free Legacy Partner landing page. That will give the school its 6-digit ID Number so that businesses can designate the school to receive 77 percent of their membership fee. The school can to block all stories from being added to its landing page. The poc can also arrange for the school to create its own story for the Heritage Honor Roll, which can be in multiple languages to better connect the school with its diverse communities.

Second, the poc should notify students and parents/guardians about the program so they can give their student permission to register for free to take advantage of its benefits. See “Benefits of Americans All for High School Students.”

Third, the poc should notify all of the clubs and teams about setting up their own free nonprofit landing pages so they can host the stories of their members. These landing pages can serve as “virtual yearbooks” for each club or team.

Once the poc has been identified, we will work with them to develop the messaging that they would like to send out. In addition, we will contact the PTA directly to explain how the program can become an important part of their fundraising activities for the school. After the pilot phase has finished, we will notify the school’s poc to explain how the funds will be automatically transferred to it or its agent.

PTA organizations support schools in getting both unrestricted funds and resources. We can fill this dual role by providing them with a program—our Heritage Honor Roll and Legacy Partner landing pages—to add as a fundraising tool. In addition, many of the members of the PTA (as well as other school families) own or participate in local businesses and as professional service providers.

Businesses and professional service providers pay a membership fee of $49 every six months to create a marketing-based landing page, and 77 percent of the membership fee goes to a school of their choice. These landing pages can also host the stories of their employees, expand an affinity group. In addition, local businesses can create and publish stories about themselves on our Heritage Honor Roll to help them better connect with their communities.

Moreover, businesses benefit because stories directly impact emotions, and emotions rather than data change behavior and frequently determine decisions to buy. Good storytelling builds trust and connections. It influences people to believe in the products upon which they depend every day and encourages them to become customers and clients.

Our storytelling tool: Members can create two stories in English and as many as they desire in multiple languages. If students have already created a story, they can repurpose it by adding various enhancements and translations. Stories can be autobiographical or written about individuals, groups, or issues/topics (or about their family pet), contain up to 2,000 words of text (1,000 can be password protected), augmented with images, logos, hyperlinks, photographs and audio-video media. A shorter version can also be created and printed in an 8½” x 11” format. Schools and nonprofits can also create stories. Moreover, students can use their story to create virtual yearbooks for the landing pages of all the clubs and teams in which they participate.

Clubs and teams can create free nonprofit legacy partner landing pages to host stories of their members

Benefits of Storytelling to Students

Our unique storytelling tool offers many benefits for students participating in non-curriculum school activities. It can also make a positive difference in their personal lives.

- All stories begin at birth, and legacies are built each time a personal, academic or professional milestone is achieved. Every student has important experiences and lessons learned to share with family, friends and future generations. Creating and publishing a story about themselves (or their families) helps students develop skills in critical thinking, communicating, researching, and, especially, writing—skills needed to help ensure their success in postsecondary education and/or the workforce. For student-athletes, this is an ideal opportunity to showcase their talents to post-secondary institutions.
- Americans All enables each school club or team to set up its own free Legacy Partner landing page to host stories created by its members on our Heritage Honor Roll. Each of these landing pages can become a virtual annual yearbook. Students can post their current story on as many landing pages as they desire. If the members of the clubs and teams update their stories after graduation, their peers are kept current on their classmate's activities. For additional exposure, students can also post their stories on any Americans All legacy partner page.
- Our program also provides students with an opportunity to demonstrate that they understand and appreciate the value of community service and volunteerism. By helping others less skilled in the art of writing and the use of today's technology to incorporate images and recordings into their legacy stories, a student can earn service-learning credits. Moreover, storytelling can also be a wonderful intergenerational bonding experience, building compassion, empathy and understanding.
- Even though Americans All is no longer active in curriculum areas, our resources remain online to provide background for many of our Heritage Honor Roll stories. We will continue to host resources (now called issues/topics) that are academically well-researched and written, especially those that feature individuals or groups that make up local histories. A student can use their second Heritage Honor Roll story in English or set up an additional, free email membership account (<https://www.guru99.com/best-free-email-service-providers.html>) and select a "Group" story instead of an "Individual" story. Students will find it easy to start creating their stories. Our story template only requires individuals to fill in a name, date of birth and a summary not to exceed 60 words. Additional story text, hyperlinks, photographs and audio-visual media can be added over time. The story does not have to be completed in one session and can be updated at any time. All previous versions of the story are archived. Moreover, stories can be published in multiple languages. Only the student can edit the story, and half of the story can be privacy protected with a second password.

As part of their lifetime membership in Americans All, we offer our members a free, three-month subscription to our optional Social Legacy Network to receive additional benefits. After the trial period expires, the cost is $4 per month to continue receiving these benefits, which includes discounts on goods and services offered by our program partners, such as restaurants and other businesses that cater to their needs. We believe the financial benefits that a member can receive from our business partners will more than cover their monthly subscription fee.

Contact with the Howard County Partnership Office

Hi Allan,

I heard back from our Curriculum Office and learned that they are not interested in partnering because we already have a program in place that meets similar objectives. The existing program is called Story Strong. When we find that a potential opportunity is not possible, we try to offer other ideas that may be helpful, which is why I listed some plan B thoughts.

PTAs - If you are looking for contact information for high school PTAs, please see this link for the listing of all high school websites - Schools – HCPSS. Once you click on a school's website, scroll down to the bottom of the homepage to see a link to PTA information. For PTAs, they are separate organizations that have their own procedures. They do not typically need to contact our office; however, if they mention the need to reach out to us, you can refer them to me.

Clubs - Certain school clubs may be interested in your program. To get information about the various clubs at each high school, please see this link for the listing of all high school websites (this is the same link as the one listed above) –Schools – HCPSS. Once you click on a school's website, look under Student Life, Activities & Clubs for the listing of clubs. Each club should have a point of contact listed on the school websites. They are typically teachers who are serving as advisors. Those are the contacts you should be reaching out to.

If you find a potential match with a particular extracurricular club or PTA, please reach out to the point of contact directly.

Community News & Programs Page - Nonprofit organizations can distribute information through the school system by requesting that it be posted on the HCPSS Community News & Programs page. If you would like to share information about your programs with the public, please submit a post by clicking on the Add your Program link at the top of the page. For questions about this page, please contact publicinfo@hcpss.org.

HC Historical Society - I encourage you to continue working with the Howard County Historical Society.

HoCoPoLitSo - You may want to look into HoCoPoLitSo to see if they would be interested in a partnership.

Hi Allan,

Thanks for sending over this information and for thinking of us to participate in the Americans All program. It certainly looks like an incredible opportunity for the county.

Can you share with us what level of involvement you envision from HCEDA regarding a potential partnership? I'm cc'ing my colleagues, Chuck Bubeck (Exec Director of Maryland Innovation Center, our startup incubator as part of HCEDA) and Doug Holly (Entrepreneur in Residence for the MIC). I believe we are the best contacts for this but will be happy to connect you with others on our team as we determine more details around the potential partnership with HCEDA.

I'm also wondering if this partnership should take place between AA and Howard County Public Schools (HCPSS). Have you been in touch with anyone there? Happy to connect you.

To: Allan Kullen <allantapco02@gmail.com>

Hi Allan,

Thank you for updating me on your progress with Americans All. As I mentioned in our call, I believe this is an ideal program for the entire county to implement. Our Historical Society provides access to materials that aid in historical exploration, research and discovery for all ages and cultural groups. Continuing to add stories about those who have been instrumental in our county's growth is clearly part of our goal and this initiative would give us another vehicle to engage with students to do so.

I am pleased that your foundation recognizes that life stories are central to one's sense of self, of the social world they inhabit, and that knowledge of one's family history is associated with positive mental health, wholeness, well-being and a sense of belonging. As educators, we all share in that mission, especially in these times where our nation has become divided in so many ways. That environment can be especially troubling to our youth as they recover from the disruption and isolation created by Covid-19. Participating in activities that involve storytelling can help them feel more emotionally connected and welcomed.

By offering another way for our businesses to connect with our schools adds another dimension to the value that Americans All brings to our county. Our schools need access to unrestricted funds and this provides an ongoing way to achieve that goal.

Designing a program that will be owned by the county is a great concept. Let's plan on sitting down soon to discuss the specifics on how we can maximize its value to Howard County and the Howard County Historical Society.

Best wishes and let's talk soon,
Mark

Founded in 1958, the Howard County Historical Society is the primary public repository of historical records and artifacts related to Howard County's rich history. The Howard County Historical Society provides access to materials that aid in historical exploration, research, and discovery for all ages and cultural groups.

Throughout the year, the Howard County Historical Society presents a wide variety of engaging public programs, concerts, lectures, and other activities. The Society also welcomes school groups, clubs, home schools, adult groups, and the public to participate through field trips and outreach programs.

The Museum of Howard County (HCHS) Court House is housed in the former First Presbyterian Church, which was generally donated to the Society in 1959 by Mrs. Alta Rogers Clark in memory of her late husband, Judge James Clark, Jr. The Clark Family was instrumental in founding the Historical Society. Generations of Clarks have been on the board since the organization's founding, including Senator James Clark, Jr. and currently Martha Clark, Senior of Clarks' Estate Plans.

Located next to the Court House in Ellicott City, an original church was a modest building constructed in 1837 that collapsed during renovations in 1934. Rebuilt later that same year, the current Gothic-style structure with its soaring 100-foot tall tower, stately stained roof and stained and washed glass windows was designed by George Keiser and constructed by Frederick A. Maynard. Along with an extensive collection of outstanding artifacts, textiles, furniture and memorabilia, the Museum is home to a refurbished 1855 organ built by the A.B. Fagermacher Organ Company of Erie, PA.

The Howard County Historical Society Archives and Research Library were originally kept in the Museum and their moved to the Elliotts Mills Quaker School, now known as the West Building, in 1998. In the fall of 2011, the Society moved its treasure trove of historical maps, deeds and property records, marriage licenses, voter records, slave manumission records and other histories as well as over 4,000 historical photographs, local 4th documents, business receipts, and many rare and invaluable private documents to the Charles E. Miller Branch Library and Historical Center on Peppers Road in Ellicott City.

Reading our past, weaving into the future.
 Howard County's rich military history, our Maryland heritage, and the Society's mission of community outreach are the essential elements in the Official Howard County Historical Society Flag.

Formally adopted by the Board of Directors on July 9, 2002, our flag was inspired by the headquarters banner of General Bradley T. Johnson, a unique burgee (oval-shaped flag) with a white field and red border in the center is a large cross bottomly red - an original symbol of Maryland and one that appears the date field. It's the same symbol as used in the Howard County flag.

Surrounding the cross is an elliptical circle of 12 stars with a thirteen star in the center, replicating the star pattern of the Third Maryland Regiment's colors. One of the Continental Army's most reliable units, the Third Maryland played a major role in the victory by American forces at the Battle of Fort Mifflin, South Carolina in 1781. It was commanded by Colonel John Sager Howard, for whom the County is named.

The white stars on the regional cross are gold with black borders - representing our state colors, white, red, black, and gold. The stars are arranged so that a point on the star reaches out in all directions - symbolizing the Society's desire to reach out to future generations.

Over the cross bottomly in the shape of the Howard County Historical Society Museum, where the flag is from. We invite you to view the flag which was designed by the Society's Richard T. Clark, by visiting the Howard County Historical Society Museum.

Founded in 1958, the Howard County Historical Society is the primary public repository of historical records and artifacts related to Howard County's rich history. The Howard County Historical Society provides access to materials that aid in historical exploration, research, and discovery for all ages and cultural groups.

Throughout the year, the Howard County Historical Society presents a wide variety of engaging public programs, concerts, lectures, and other activities. The Society also welcomes school groups, clubs, home schools, adult groups, and the public to participate through field trips and outreach programs.

The Museum of Howard County (HCHS) Court House is housed in the former First Presbyterian Church, which was generally donated to the Society in 1959 by Mrs. Alta Rogers Clark in memory of her late husband, Judge James Clark, Sr. The Clark Family was instrumental in founding the Historical Society.

Located next to the Court House in Ellicott City, the original church was a modest building constructed in 1837 that collapsed during renovations in 1934. Rebuilt later that same year, the current Gothic-style structure with its soaring 100-foot tall tower, stately stained roof and stained and washed glass windows was designed by George Keiser and constructed by Frederick A. Maynard. Along with an extensive collection of outstanding artifacts, textiles, furniture and memorabilia, the Museum is home to a refurbished 1855 organ built by the A.B. Fagermacher Organ Company of Erie, PA.

The Howard County Historical Society Archives and Research Library were originally kept in the Museum and their moved to the Elliotts Mills Quaker School, now known as the West Building, in 1998. In the fall of 2011, the Society moved its treasure trove of historical maps, deeds and property records, marriage licenses, voter records, slave manumission records and other histories as well as over 4,000 historical photographs, local 4th documents, business receipts, and many rare and invaluable private documents to the Charles E. Miller Branch Library and Historical Center on Peppers Road in Ellicott City.

Legacy Stories from the Americans All Heritage Honor Roll
 We are pleased to host and share these legacy stories created by historical family, friends and associates. They, like us, appreciate that heritage and culture are an integral part of our nation's social fabric and want to help students participate effectively in our nation's economy, workforce and democracy.

 Her name is Brad Manigault. Do you know her? She's a pretty basic girl who sings beautifully... and I think she has her name! Alan had asked the question in a broken mixture of Hebrew and English in whatever would seem and sound understandable to him. Alan had had the idea while on an archaeological dig in Masada in the Negev, Israel. At the time he knew by the time they pulled away was his name and that she was staying in 'So Ariv'.

Who We Are

Beginning in 1989, Americans All (AA) was one of the nation's first education nonprofits to provide K-12 schools with multiple-perspective, diversity-based, supplemental social studies classroom resources as well as activities for English Language Arts programs. After nine pilot programs, our resources were distributed nationwide to more than 2,000 schools and libraries. However, as our nation became more politically polarized, we needed to offer a program that would be accepted by as many schools and students as possible.

Although many of our resources are still useful in academic areas, especially our Ellis Island Simulation Workshop and our Photograph Collection, we repurposed two of the major components of Americans All—our Heritage Honor Roll and Legacy Partner landing pages, and used our storytelling tool to create a unique community activities, and a greater audience.

This will allow us to share our political data and storytelling to commonality citizen, while understanding

Lifetime membership offers the opportunity to share your legacy stories. A one-year trial membership is available through Corporation, and gain future program benefits by subscribing to the optional SLN for only $4 per month. Members will not be automatically billed and can cancel their subscription at any time and no credit card is required to be put on file for the free trial.

What Volunteers Do

To accomplish this, we are in the pilot phase of implementing the AA program in three Maryland counties and in DC. (We will add PTSAs shortly.) Students participating in non-academic school activities can demonstrate their appreciation for the value of community service, create virtual yearbooks for their clubs and teams, and publish well-written and documented research. They are connected to local businesses through our unique storytelling tool which also produces a turnkey, revenue-generator for their schools and communities. Using lessons learned, we will expand the program to other Maryland counties and then to the nation. We provide students with an opportunity and a vehicle to use storytelling to:

- Learn how to use concise language and enhancing stories with photographs and other media. Students can record important events and memories as well as share their pride in their ethnic and cultural identity.
- Publish a legacy story on our Web-based Heritage Honor Roll to ensure the significance of a lifetime will not be forgotten and enables students to have a permanent and an accessible social media presence that truly describes who they are.
- Utilize storytelling as a wonderful intergenerational bonding experience that builds empathy, compassion and understanding.
- Help others less skilled in the art of writing and the use of technology to incorporate images and recordings into their legacy stories, a student can earn service-learning credits.
- Helping others create and enhance a story also demonstrates to prospective employers and postsecondary institutions a student's character and appreciation for how volunteerism benefits a community.
