

5. WHY IS STORYTELLING PART OF AMERICANS ALL 2.0?

Why is storytelling part of Americans All 2.0?

Storytelling is an important part of Americans All 2.0 because it allows individuals, families, and businesses to share and preserve experiences and stories while strengthening community connections; stories also appear in the Heritage Honor Roll section of the website.

To view the stories on the Americans All Heritage Honor Roll, click here or visit <https://americansall.org/heritage-honor-roll>

To learn how to create a story, click here or visit <https://americansall.org/node/566883>

Can teachers and students use the storytelling tools?

Yes. The storytelling platform gives teachers and students opportunities to create, share, and preserve stories as part of educational and community activities.

To view the stories on the Americans All Heritage Honor Roll, click here or visit <https://americansall.org/heritage-honor-roll>

To learn how to create a story, click here or visit <https://americansall.org/node/566883>

Can students interview grandparents or other family members?

Yes. Interviewing grandparents, parents, and other family members can be one way students can use the storytelling platform to preserve family experiences and stories.

To view the stories on the Americans All Heritage Honor Roll, click here or visit <https://americansall.org/heritage-honor-roll>

To learn how to create a story, click here or visit <https://americansall.org/node/566883>

Can local veterans or community leaders contribute stories?

Yes. The platform allows veterans, community leaders, and other community members to share experiences and stories that can be preserved for others.

To view the stories on the Americans All Heritage Honor Roll, click here or visit <https://americansall.org/heritage-honor-roll>

To learn how to create a story, click here or visit <https://americansall.org/node/566883>